

Foreword 前書き

Liclac here! Thank you so much for purchasing this digital Artbook. I was initially planning this Artbook to be published around Jan or Feb 2023, but my real life office work took up so much time that I barely could keep up since I did it all by myself :(

I apologize for the long delay, especially those who is subscribing to the Loli tier on my Fanbox and Subscribe Star. They were supposed to get this Artbook much more earlier.

But, I'm happy that finally I can deliver this Artbook! This Artbook contains all my illustrations from end of 2022 to end of 2023.

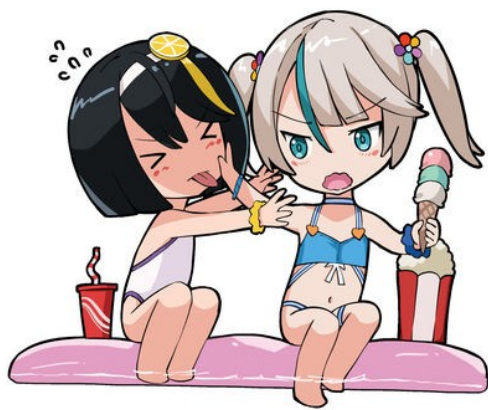

In the near future I want to create specialized small artbook focusing on specific themed illustrations. Please look forward to that.

Special thanks to those who supported me on Pixiv, Twitter, Fanbox, Subscribe Star!

Cheers :)
