AMAZINGLY
SHE QUIT

Translator's note: The letter of apology is a thing Japanese workers have to do when they screw up. It's only done in very serious instances, such as when you punch somebody. Also, the Platinum Media sign is outside a restaurant. It shows that there is a large gathering for that customer. It makes it easy for people to find where the party is, and for people to avoid a big party if they just happen by the restaurant.

Translator's note: Pouring your own drink is a major faux pas at a party in Japan. You need to let others pour for you. Basically, Shigeru is going totally against the party atmosphere.

Panel 1: A character with dark hair and goggles on his head is pouring a drink from a bottle into a glass. He looks slightly awkward. A speech bubble says: "UHM, EXCUSE ME ...".

Panel 2: The character continues to pour the drink. A speech bubble says: "I'M NOT SO WORRIED ABOUT GETTING HOME, BUT HE'S GONNA END UP RUINING THIS PARTY ...".

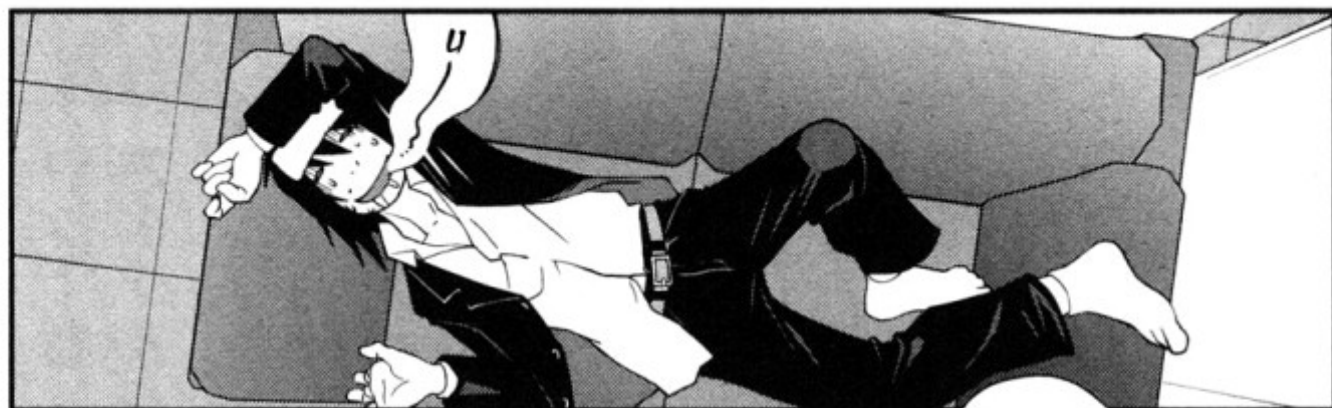

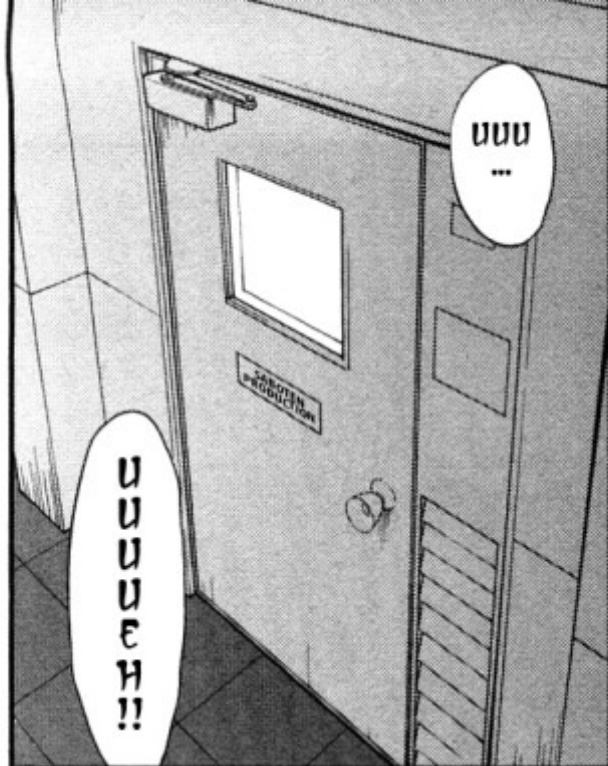

Panel 3: The character is still pouring the drink. A speech bubble says: "OH SHIT ... HE'S TOTALLY LOST IT ...".

Panel 4: A close-up of the character's face as he pours the drink. He has a determined but slightly nervous expression. A speech bubble says: "UH, SHIGE ... JUST HOW ARE YOU GONNA DRIVE ME HOME TONIGHT?".

Panel 5: The character is still pouring the drink. A speech bubble says: "HE'S POURING HIS OWN DRINK ...".

A large panel showing three female characters reacting excitedly. The character on the left is holding a bottle and saying: "WANNA DRINK WITH US !?". The character in the middle is saying: "BOYO". The character on the right is saying: "EXCITE!".

A panel showing a group of characters celebrating and drinking. A speech bubble says: "WHAT A SIMPLETON ...". Another speech bubble says: "OH YEAH! YOU BET! ☆". A large sound effect "SWISH" is written across the bottom. Other characters are saying "YEAH!" and "YO YO YONG".
