MAYBE IT'S A GOOD THING.

This year has been very rocky for me both at my work and personally. How are all of my amazing readers? Manga Shounen Zoom also turns 1 this year, as this is the 4th seasonal release. I couldn't have done it without all of you reading my work. I'm going to try to be just as active next year so by all means I hope all of you honor me with your support.

Sleep-over Creeping

This chapter is about perverting on your friends when sleeping over. I really liked it; it's thrilling and exciting. Perving on your sleeping friends is really thrilling, right? Though I'm not sure it's quite that easy to do without them waking up. Either way, this chapter is about two people sharing a bed. He's really brave, huh? And imagine the thrill of making your friend cum while he's sleeping. Though, I'm not sure if he was really asleep by the end lol. I'm sure he quickly ran to the bathroom to finish himself off too. It's very erotic.

Also, I decided to send Kurosawa-kun on a vacation for a little while, so I can try to draw some other ideas I have of boys (BOI) and photography (GRAPH).

Masturbation Tournament.

This chapter is about going to your older friend's house with hopes for some steamy activities. Amano-kun seems to be feeling really conflicted. Although, getting to jerk off while you watch the guy you like is definitely an experience.

I did my best to make sure Sugiyama-senpai was well-endowed. You'd think I'd get tired of putting dicks in every chapter, but I guess that's just the way I am... Looking back on it, I like Amano-kun's big dick, too.

Also joining us at Sugiyama-senpai's jerk-off contest is a new character: Takayama-senpai. He's kind of a quiet and rough kind of guy. His dick is kind of hairy, but the foreskin is a little tight, which is the best kind... I think.

Well, this was quite the chapter, so I'll have to spend some time working on some more ideas (lol).

Potage, Udon, and Soup...

When you're cold, warm things are delicious. They warm you up. I tried to draw this with that in mind: getting warm from the cold. I never have confidence that I'll be able to express myself like that, but I think I'm slowly getting better.

This one turned out with both characters having glasses. At first only the shota had glasses and while I was coming up with the nii-chan character I decided he should have glasses, too. I think the art came out awful (lol).

But the page with the shota shooting on his face is good. On the first frame of the last page, I had a hard time drawing his eyes. I went back and forth and decided that not drawing his eyes made it kind of erotic. And then after that are the pages where he came in his underwear, and the playing back and forth about being pervy. I like those. What do you guys think?

Manga Shounen Zoom Vol. 04

I changed the software I use to draw with, and it's been taking me a long time to get used to. I don't know if that's why, but I feel like the quality suffered some this time around. I hope you all enjoy it anyway.

I'm planning on releasing Vol. 05 in May for Shotaket and Shota Scratch. There's a Shota Scratch in February, so I might release something for that, but so far that's all I have planned.

Well, with that, thank you everyone for your support this year. I really appreciate it. I hope everyone is as good to me next year, too. Happy New Year, everyone.
