A POPSICLE ON A HOT DAY IS THE BEST ♡

It's also hot during summer on planet M5656.—
Ultra Fuguri eats popsicles during hot days to refresh himself.

When the boys on planet M5656 reach a certain level of friendship and wants to deepend their relationship, they lick each other's dick. Since Fuguri and Manx are already quite friendly between each other, they lick their dicks to confirm their friendship. When Manx licks Fuguri, he often tries to tease him so he doesn't cum right away.

Afterwords

Thank you for purchasing this book.

Firstly, if we include this book, this will be the fourth doujin I made.

As for the content of this book, this one is also about giant's brutes. (lol)

Since I started making this doujin late, I have tried to fill it with a lot of different content instead of going into a deeper story.

In the second part with Torajima-kun,

I think it would have been better if I developed that part a little more.

At first glance, Ultra Fuguri and friends from planet M5656 may seem harshly cruel, but since they are huge, the tinies are too insignificant to think of as people, and this is why they don't feel any guilt crushing a huge number of them to death.

When compared to the humans on this Earth who kill many animals mercilessly for no reason, there's no difference at all.

In a way, this book's content shows this ironically.

Since space is a huge place, it wouldn't be too strange if there was an alien race out there with this much indifference toward other living things.

To say nothing of, if there's an overwhelming difference in size, I think this kind of thing could happen. Sure, when looking from the perspective of one being stepped on, this isn't something bearable, but...

Lastly, thank you again for purchasing my book.

Also, I hope to see you again when I release another book.
