KAZUKI- SAMA IS LOVELY WHEN HE IS BEING GENTLE, BUT...

Hello, I'm Iuro.

Thank you very much for picking up Eroliya 2015 WINTER/vol.14! This time I tried doing something a bit different from usual, so I drew a maid manga, how did you like that? Drawing a maid was fun, but since the maid costume had so many wavy lines, I feel like it took more time than I had thought it would. Since there isn't much time left to prepare between Winter Comiket and Summer Comiket, I hope I'll have some free space in my schedule to start my preparations soon after the Winter Comiket has ended, but in the end I'll deliver the manuscript barely in time as usual. Yeah.

Still, there are many solid black parts for the clothes and hair and they look fine on the monitor, so I think it will look good in the final manuscript too.

This time again, there are no pin-ups in the colored pages, I tried to go for a manga approach, but maybe that's why I barely made it in time. Of course, drawing a color manga takes more time than pin-ups do.

This year a compilation book of volumes one to nine (plus bonus drawings) came out, though I still want to publish a full-color anthology. Since last time we published a full-color compilation of volumes one to five (plus bonus drawings lol), the next anthology could be coming out pretty soon, as the manuscripts have been piling up.

I also want to do a manga-like CG set and...My God! There are so many things I'm thinking about, I want to do all this different stuff, but time and energy are not really up there...! I also want to play Dragon Quest after.
Next year I'll have to work really hard!

If that's the case, please buy Eroliya next year, too!
Have a good New Year!
