

A manga-style illustration featuring three characters. In the foreground, two young women are shown from the waist up. The woman on the left has short brown hair and large green eyes, with a surprised expression and her hands near her face. The woman on the right has short orange hair and large blue eyes, smiling with her hands near her face. Both are unclothed, with their breasts prominently displayed. They are wearing dark brown skirts with ruffles and white socks. In the background, a young man with short black hair and red eyes is looking towards the right. He is wearing a dark blue jacket. The title text is written vertically in pink between the two women.
