魔胎都市

[...this, what thick miasma. Just the surface and it's already like this... ... If I were to go in here, it would become even...] even the experienced monster slayer can't help but feel dread. Rather, because her body has already fought the monster once and developed, she could then experience this fear. What awaits her, is a monster who is all too familiar with Sakuya which has laid down cunning and obscene traps. Just thinking of it has made her heart restless with anxiety, her flesh has also become so sensitive as she started to quiver. [... But... this is my mission, I won't let a place like this force me into retreating! Even so, Enjou Sakuya's awareness won't let something of this degree faze/shake her.

[To enter from a place like this, it makes me feel uneasy...]
The entrance was narrow and foul smelling, sticky fluids were everywhere and the air was filled with a thick and disgusting odour. Just being near this putrid air would cause one's body to heat up, overloading the senses till it made you feel aching pains.

At the entrance to the monster's den, Sakuya slipped in smoothly feet first. The surroundings echoed with the sound of the viscous fluids, a large amount of white mucus covered her from waist down.

What an unpleasant sensation. But to capture him, I must stride forward! Sakuya knew that only dirty traps awaited her, but she was determined to leap into that repulsive prison. Because the demon that she was supposed to exterminate-----was one that she used to work with, but he wanted to rise above Sakuya, so he abandoned oneself and became a lecherous monster, and he was awaiting her arrival.

And just like this, general Sakuya's ripe and mature body was slowly lured into a world of pure carnal desire. [Haah, haah, haah... ah ah, uuu, my body... getting hot... uuu... ah ah!]

This tunnel could barely let one person get through. There was no way for Sakuya to satisfy her burgeoning lust, she could only endure as her hypersensitive body ached and progress onward. (This tunnel... is it not over yet...? How far more before I reach the exit...?)

So... so it's like this... the stench in this place is too strong, if this goes on... my body, my body keeps aching, it won't stop...! What lies within the tunnel is a horrific dungeon much worse than what Sakuya imagined. The narrow tunnel was flooded with an overwhelming and repugnant smell, holding one's breath would not stop one's body and mind from corroding away. The floor, walls, and ceiling were plastered with thick white goo, there was absolutely no place to hide. Her every movement would cause her body to be smothered in the liquid.

The sticky fluids and thick rancid smell melted her mind as 10 minutes passed while she continued to descend. Finally, from the darkness, she spotted the exit.

[Ha ah... ha, ah, aah...huh!]

Suddenly, a fountain of even thicker and larger amounts of ooze sprayed out from the walls around her. It used her moment of weakness, just when she was thinking it would not be easy to leave this place, and attacked Sakuya under-handedly.

A copious amount of glop mercilessly enveloped her voluptuous body.

[Eeee, no, it can't... uuu! So, so much of this sticky mucus..... It's, It's effect is too strong... ... uuu!]
An already aroused Sakuya, now became even more turned on. She had originally wanted to wipe the goo off her breasts, but now her trembling hands can only caress her smooth and creamy skin as her strength was sapped away. Her soaked clothing started to slip off, exposing her pink and plump breasts, and her swelling pained nipples.

[Ah, Aahh... ... My body... ... actually, actually became this excited...]

The esteemed monster hunter felt humiliated, as her shameless body succumbed to pleasurable sensations. A detestable monster appeared before Sakuya.

[Hnnng, how has it been, Sakuya... ... how is the slime-covered tunnel that I specially prepared for you? Sakuya, aren't those just your favourite? Did you enjoy it?]

[You, you're.....!]

As she tries to suppress her lustful body, she straightened her messy suit, Sakuya confronted the monster in front of her.

[What a awful sight you are. To actually willingly descend into the depths and realm of monsters... ... how foolish of you... ...! This was all to trap in my hands. Witness my tentacles... Sakuya, you love these thick, revolting tentacles don't you?]

His mucus-covered tentacles writhed and squirmed as he spoke using his vulgar voice which he acquired when he was still human, Sakuya, she recognized this monster. Rather, she recognized that person right before he turned into a monster. But---

[Absorbed in his lust, he even threw away his human dignity and his identity as a monster-hunter and a researcher... ... As a colleague who once worked with you, at the very least, I, Enjou Sakuya, will personally purge you!]

[Hahaha! You still remember lives we led together in the past. I'm elated, Sakuya! I'm far too pleased... ... Hehe, I'm going to cum already!]

The feelings Sakuya holds are far too complicated for anyone to understand. When he was still a human working with Sakuya, he was a mad and stalkerish man who was strongly attracted to Sakuya's erotic, exquisite body. ---- Ignoring his twisted mind, he did not hesitate to turn into a monster, he was determined to play Sakuya into his hands. The object of his depraved dreams was right in front of his eyes, the monster was extremely delighted as he wriggled his tentacles.

[Ahahah, Sakuya, Sakuya, my Sakuya! As long as it's got anything to do with you, I know all about it... ... Even if you are the strongest monster hunter, the moment your body starts to get aroused, your promiscuous body won't be able to muster any strength!]

[I made this special mucus aphrodisiac exclusively for you, and drenched your entire body with it, now your lust is so overwhelming that you won't have an ounce of strength left. Although I mixed my semen in it, you look like you're enjoying it immensely, ahaha!]

[What..... who, who would... ... gu... you're horrible!]

The monster was so degenerate that it left Sakuya at a loss for words, she attempted to wipe away the mucus covering her body. But the dried up mucus firmly binded onto her skin, the more she wiped, the more a nauseating stench of semen would waft through the air and enter her nose.

[Uuuu, this, this kind of thing... your cum... cum... ... uahh, it's, it's too disgusting...!]

[Ahaha, you may say so, but your face looks excited. Kuhuhu... Can you actually use your excited and aroused body to fight against me in this accursed place?]

[Shut, shut up! I won't lose! A setback of this magnitude is merely trivial!]

Even though it was clear that her clean spiritual energy was being eroded away by the evil gases in this place.

But Sakuya did not flinch, as she glared at the enemy right in front of her.

[Kuhuhu~ very well, very well, it's clear that in reality you can barely hold up but you're still maintaining that bravado! This is what I love about you, Sakuya!..... In that case, here I come!]

[Uuu!]

A barrage of countless lustful and fierce tentacles burst forth, locking onto their prey and descending upon it. Sakuya perseveres with her body on the brink of being unable to withstand the lust. The strongest monster hunter faces off against her worst enemy.

Since Sakuya's usual bodysuit was in an unusable state, she borrowed Sayaka's suit for her mission, and ended up being utterly humiliated.

UUUU... I WON'T LOSE TO A MONSTER OF THIS DEGREE!

A stylized, high-contrast illustration of a hand with fingers spread, rendered in black and white against a red background. The hand is positioned vertically, with the fingers pointing upwards. The style is graphic and expressive, with thick black outlines and a limited color palette. The background is a solid red color, and the hand itself is white with black outlines. The overall effect is one of intensity and focus.
