Translator notes:

This is an unprofessional, fan edited version. I know nothing about Japanese

I used Google Translate on my phone, and several online dictionaries

So accuracy may be off.

There were several times I couldn't properly identify sound fx, or understand the context of what was being said. So I improvised. And it looks like it.

Hello, it's been a while. Nice to see you. It's Kyoto. Thank you for buying this book.

Also, this time the issuance of this book was delayed for a long time. We are sorry for those who reserved at the bookstore or were looking forward to it. I was finally able to publish it, thank you for waiting. I think that we can work out the timing on making reservations and announcements in the future.

Recent Situation

I talked about it in the previous book, but as a result of a bad physical condition of my stomach and esophagus continuing, this book was very late. I have been taking medicine since December, I felt it was getting better in the middle of March, but recently I'm feeling bad again, recently I feel like I'm going numb when it flares up.

Recently drawing has been fun. Whether it was just good to start, or if I finally cleared some hurdle I don't know. It just became easy.

LOL

After that I bought PS4 and got involved in the game again so it was great that I could get absorbed in it and feel stimulated by something other than drawing.

Track and Field manga I wanted to draw forever! I tried a lot of come this time. The paper was buried more than usual, but was there not enough rampant? Although it is the thinnest in the manga I've drawn up to now, it is still a lot when you consider my projects. Even though it is an erotica manga, I always considered it because I did not have any talks in the way that I thought it was difficult.

Also, I wonder if there is an ethereal scene with the voice talks and having rather than talking to bring it to a usual sex scene...it is an impression. There are other things, but this is the best reflection of this time. After that I had a lot of run drawing the cartoon this time. As usual, as long as the postponement continues, I can lose my mind to paint Don Dong, but the season has never passed. I wanted to draw a little more places where I could enjoy the director and wear...Anyway, I do not know when it will be, but as the next two episodes are edone, I think I will draw it when I feel like it. I changed the pen every time afterwards, but this time it's very easy to draw and it's okay I feel it. I'd like to draw with this setting for a while

There are a lot of things I want to talk about, but I think I will also make a book and talk. Next I decided what to draw, so I think I'll get down soon. Next time I will do my best so that I can do it sooner (consult with quantity and physical condition)
