

太陽と月の境界で

For Adult Only

The Boundary Between the Sun and Moon

太陽と月の境界で

Thank you for reading this BOOK.

This is a Django x Sabata Boktai story. I'm completely hooked on Boktai but don't know anyone else who is a fan, so I decided to vent my desire to talk about it into this BOOK. ..or so I say, in reality this BOOK is just something I wanted to make for myself.

There isn't much I can say without telling the entire story, so I will keep it simple. Django and Sabata are brothers but they do not get along. Their parents have passed away. They are truly a broken family. Having been infused with darkness Sabata hates his brother Django. But after a long time and with great effort Django manages to free Sabata from the darkness and bring him back.That's where we are.

The story starts with them eating dinner to try and get closer. There is a lot to Boktai, so I had to take some liberties with the story, so please forgive me for that. The second half in particular will need an open mind towards the story (haha).

SABATA
NII-CHAN
CAME TO VISIT
TODAY

SO WE'RE ALL HAVING

How did you like it?

There were many places that could have been better, but if you enjoyed it at all then I am happy.

Anyways, Boktai is a really good game.

The system for needing to play in the sunlight is really unique, though it's certainly difficult for an adult to have time to be out in the sun while playing. The action and puzzle parts of the game are really well done, so as a game it's a success. But the story is especially gripping in my opinion.

There is a lot to the story, but if I could change one thing it's what happened to Django. His father turns into an undead right in front of him and died, meanwhile his brother is filled with darkness, so... yeah, I think Django has one of the roughest backstories of them all. Despite the rough position he is in he works so hard and worries about his brother. It's really moving.

If you haven't played the game, you really really should!
And now for the final line... (haha)

Keep the Sun always in your heart!

...See you next time.
