Foreword

Good day, I'm Mira from Peachpulsar.

This is a sequel to my last work, "Mousou Bukatsu Shoujo".
Since this is a collection of short stories, there's no problem at all if you read this before the last one.
This time too, I wanted to showcase as many of my fantasies as I could.

I made it so it didn't have any trivial penetration either, I would be really happy if you were looking forward to this.
It might be all about aggressive junior girls, but that's kind of my thing.

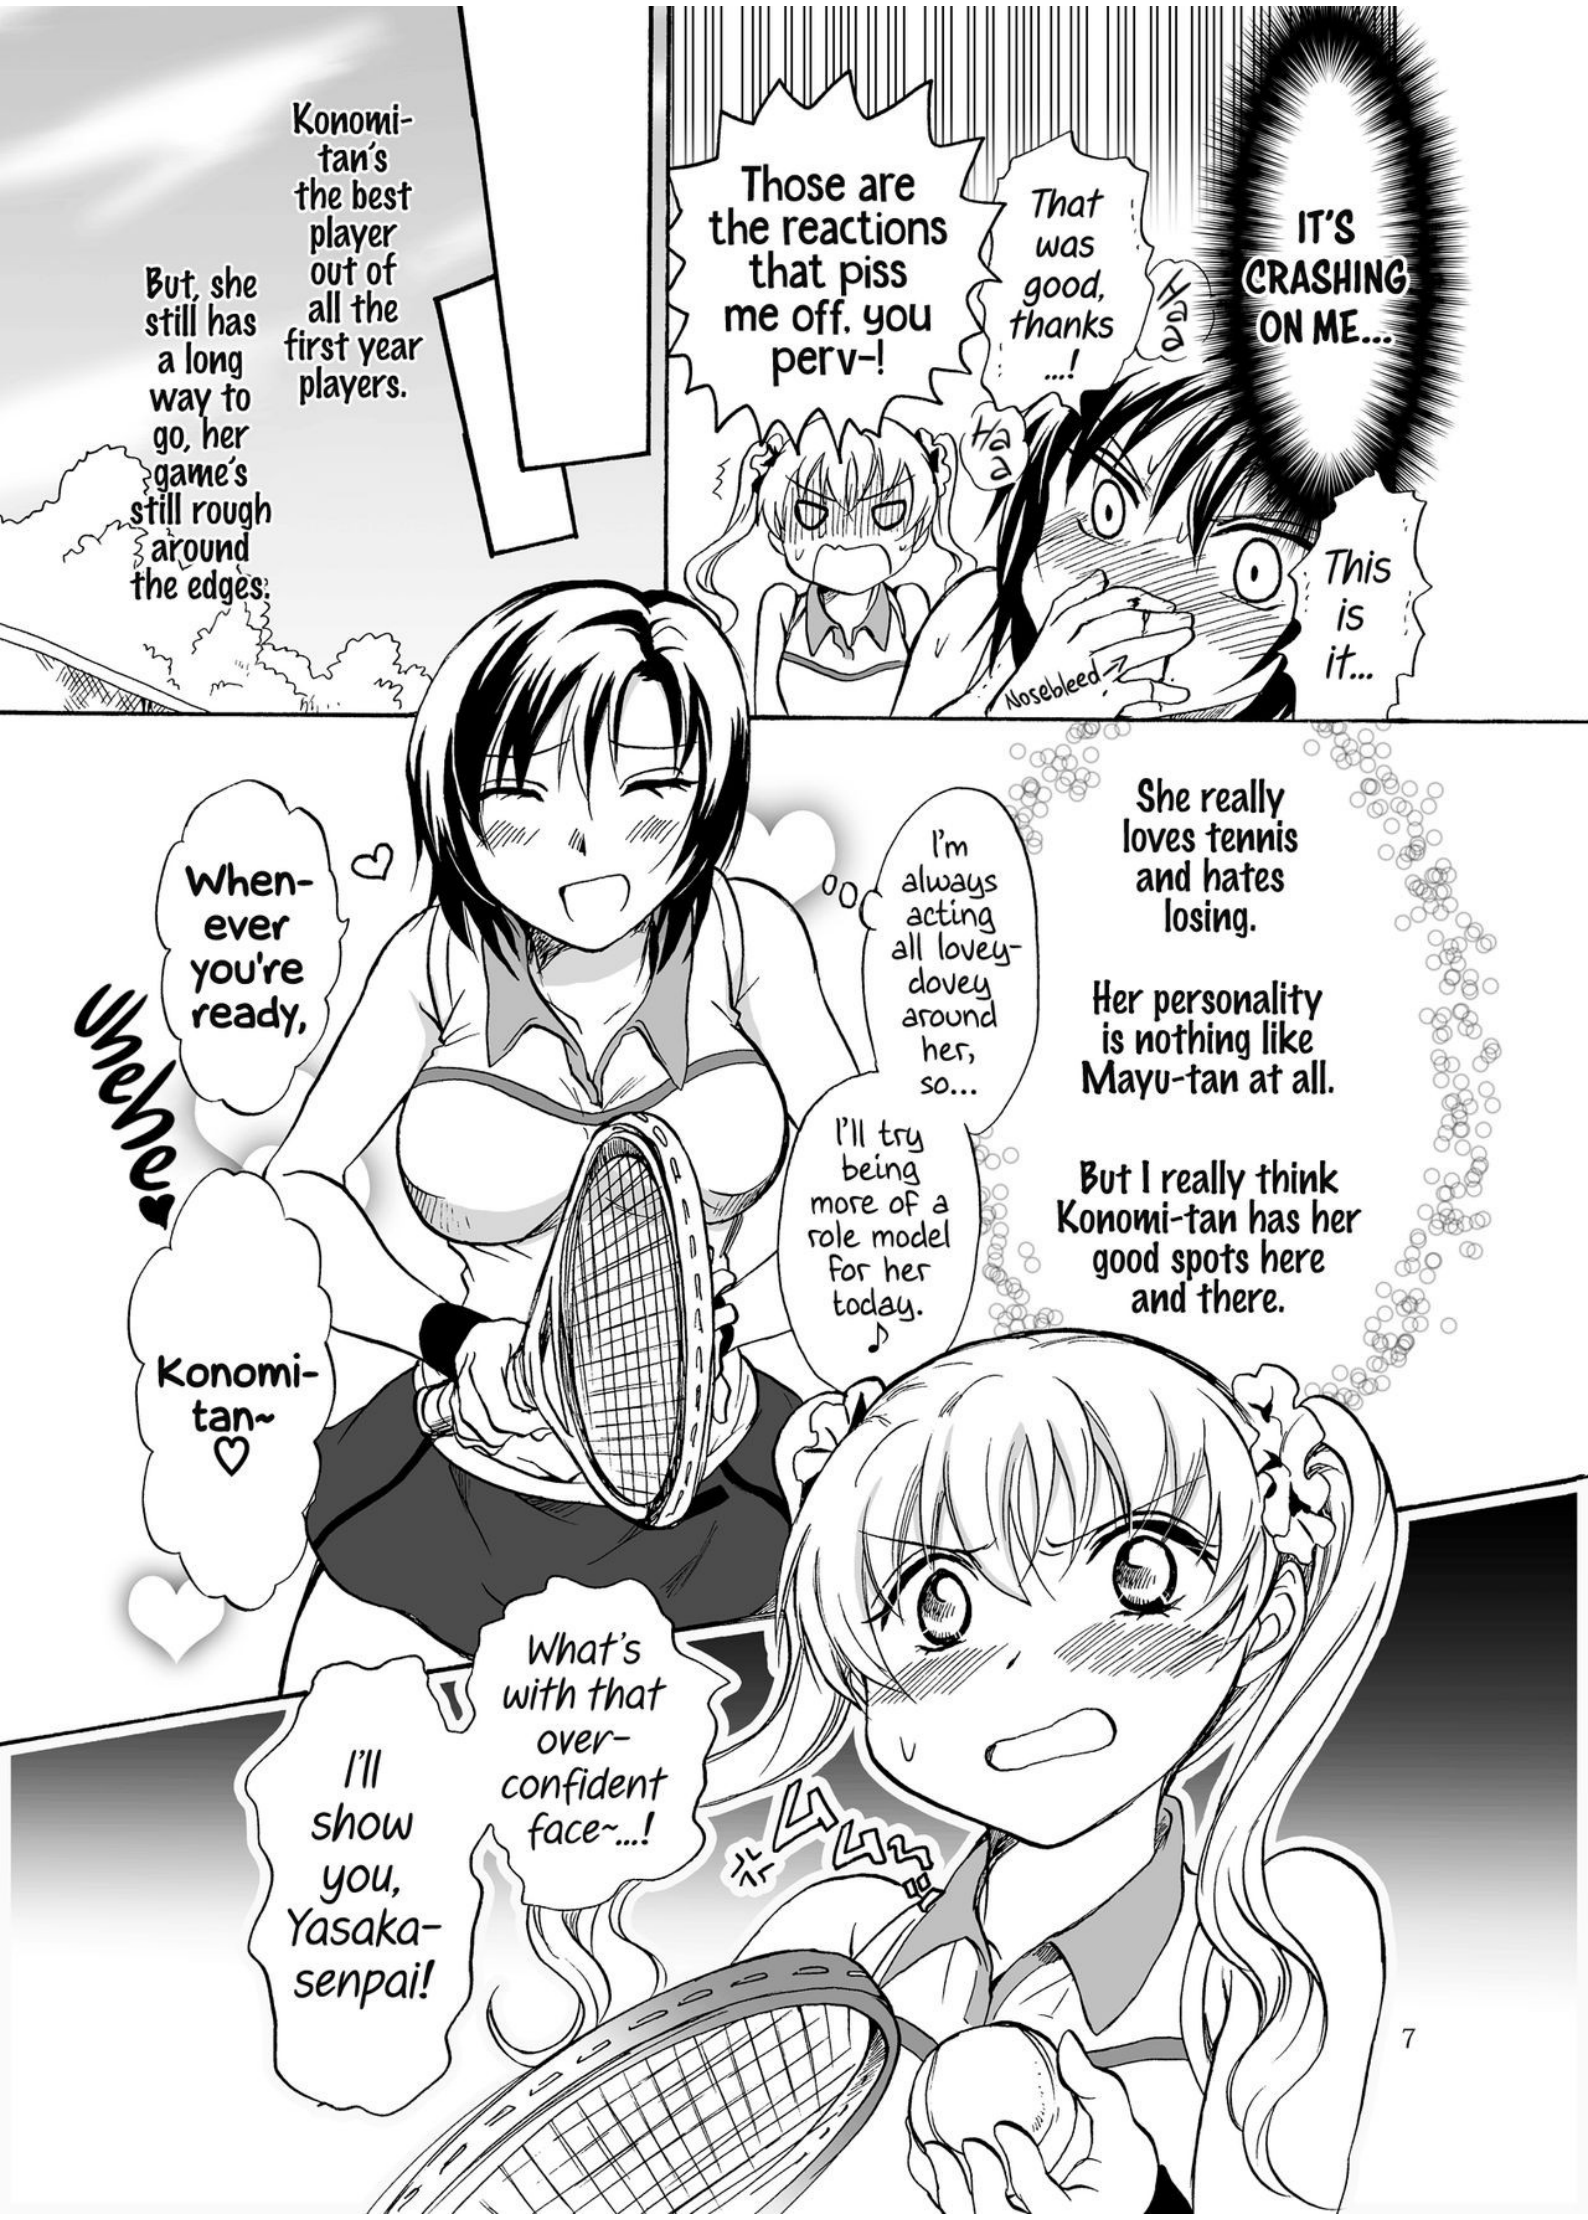

There are still a lot more clubs to go around, it would be so nice if got to release a third one of this series.

Without further ado, enjoy.
