Continued to "Tiny Evil 3"

Afterword

Greetings, MUK here.

I wasn't able to continue the "Tiny Evil" series due to scheduling issue since I have to prioritize what to publish for CM. Although I had to rush a bit more on this work, drawing this was enjoyable since I didn't have to follow a strict plot line like a normal manga, and new sketches kept popping up in my head, I hope I can draw them out next time.

Speaking of which, fixing the private parts was really difficult. Not only did I have to edit the works multiple times, I also changed the printing press I use this time. I personally really liked the intense scene where the girl was disciplining the giant cock, but if I censored the whole thing, I wouldn't be able to convey the essence to the readers, I hope I'll be pardoned for that.

Our current censorship laws have to be changed, I wonder why they're needed in the first place. Are they too inhumane because they're too obscene? Or do they infringe on others' rights because they're too obscene? Or do they propagate crime? Or are they bad for the teenage mind? All in all, these have become the reasons for censorship. I don't understand... I did some simple investigate as well, but the results are always "Just put up the censorship and everything will be fine..." There's no way I can just accept this conclusion. It's not even a difficult discussion, I think we just have to properly execute the age-restriction (only allowing people who want to see that kind of content), then, it's not like we can't fulfill the simple desires of "people who want to see erotic content", right? Then someone would say pirating content or disrupting public order is a crime.

Uhm, of course I'll obey the law, but there are some parts that just don't make sense to me, I'm just hoping someone can give me a convincing reason that I can accept.

Also, I've already started working in order to publish a longer work in Winter CM.

The sequel will include the two girls that are on the cover page. Do look forward to that.

Lastly, I want to say thanks to all my readers and friends who have supported me.
