アタリが
出たから もう
ひとり

作: 窓
(サークルムカデ島)

then
let it
hang
for a
while.

bind the
piece
tight

cut out
a piece
around
the
butt

For the
intestines
you'll want
to get
out all
the green
bitter
stuff,
so for
now you
can just
take
every-
thing
out

And
now the
grand
reveal~

and
after
that's
done we
can sort
them
out~

then
we'll
let them
spill
into a bucket

Crack open the ribs and the pelvis~

Tear off the arms and legs~

Peel off the skin~

I can just use the Fridge in that other room.

Ah, I know!

Looks like this Fridge doesn't have any more space.

Hmm...

BONUS PAGE

The lady who had the "winner." She only appears in the story as a pile of innards.

The lady living in the apartment next door. Has a moderately big bust.

The main character this time around. The concept I had in mind was "a girl who can use other people's kitchens without even a hint of hesitation."

Sweat-shirt and sweat-pants

School swim-suit. This is suit. my first time drawing one.

Duffle bag.

There are lots of strange tools inside of it. The stuff inside originally belonged to someone else as well.

Long white rubber boots.

I bought some just recently so I wanted to draw them.

Stungun.

In reality it's actually difficult to faint from having it used on you so please don't use this book as a reference for that!

Afterword

It ended up being roughly a year since my last book. I really like drawing cute girls living on the edge, only still alive thanks to their luck, whose heads are filled with nothing but positive thoughts.

↑ The circle cut for Ryonaket 6. The main character's design changed somewhat.
