Inoue is a catfight enthusiast who loves having women fight each other.

On the same day every month, he enjoys bringing his prize, Anna, to a hotel room where he has her fight another woman sent on a delivery health service.

Tonight, Anna will fight Maya, a delivery health girl from Inoue's favorite sex shop.

It's a dangerous game: whoever knocks out her opponent within 10 minutes wins ¥150,000... and it's about to start.

The contrast between violence and the usual image of women is just so awesome!

What a two-dimensional, selfish idea. It's almost as if I can sense some desire to improve oneself there.

So in my case of having a thigh fetish, I want to come wrapped in the maternity of thighs. Honestly that excites me more than anything else.

たは、

Role reversal > pleasure from losing

When considering that traditionally, the physically superior man would protect the woman, that is indeed an act against humanity's instinct itself! Also, I want to achieve more pleasure by having the man's universal sense of mystery destroyed by a woman!

Fetishes are incurable diseases. Once you've become aware of the fact you've got pervert-like tendencies and beyond help, you should simply enjoy yourself. Especially masochistic fighting? the fun is all in the partner, so make sure to be considerate. If you're making an offer to someone other than a pro, make sure to find compromises, such as "Ride, restrain and do the sleeping wind technique," "Squeezed and crushed with thighs, bliss?," "I'm being destroyed by a strong girl... or so I deceive myself to think."

Eliminating desire should only be done in the right place and with the right partner!

Men should be passive!

Well for a pervert like you, this is your prescription!

Also, don't let mankind decline!!!

You helpless pervert!
