Comments:

This one didn't seem to be my kind of thing, but then I saw the third page and it grabbed me.

Yay new artists and all that.

This one seemed that it would be hell to edit at first, but then my Paint skills reached a new level and I figured out another shortcut that makes my life easier. Still no Photoshop, but I'm a stubborn bastard like that.

Also, sorry for not editing over all the little "haa"s in the artwork itself. That would have driven me completely mad if I had tried.
