OH!

MOTHER'S PARTICULARS!

~Hot Spring Vacation Edition~

I know right?

It's nice to visit the hot springs as a family every now and then. ♡

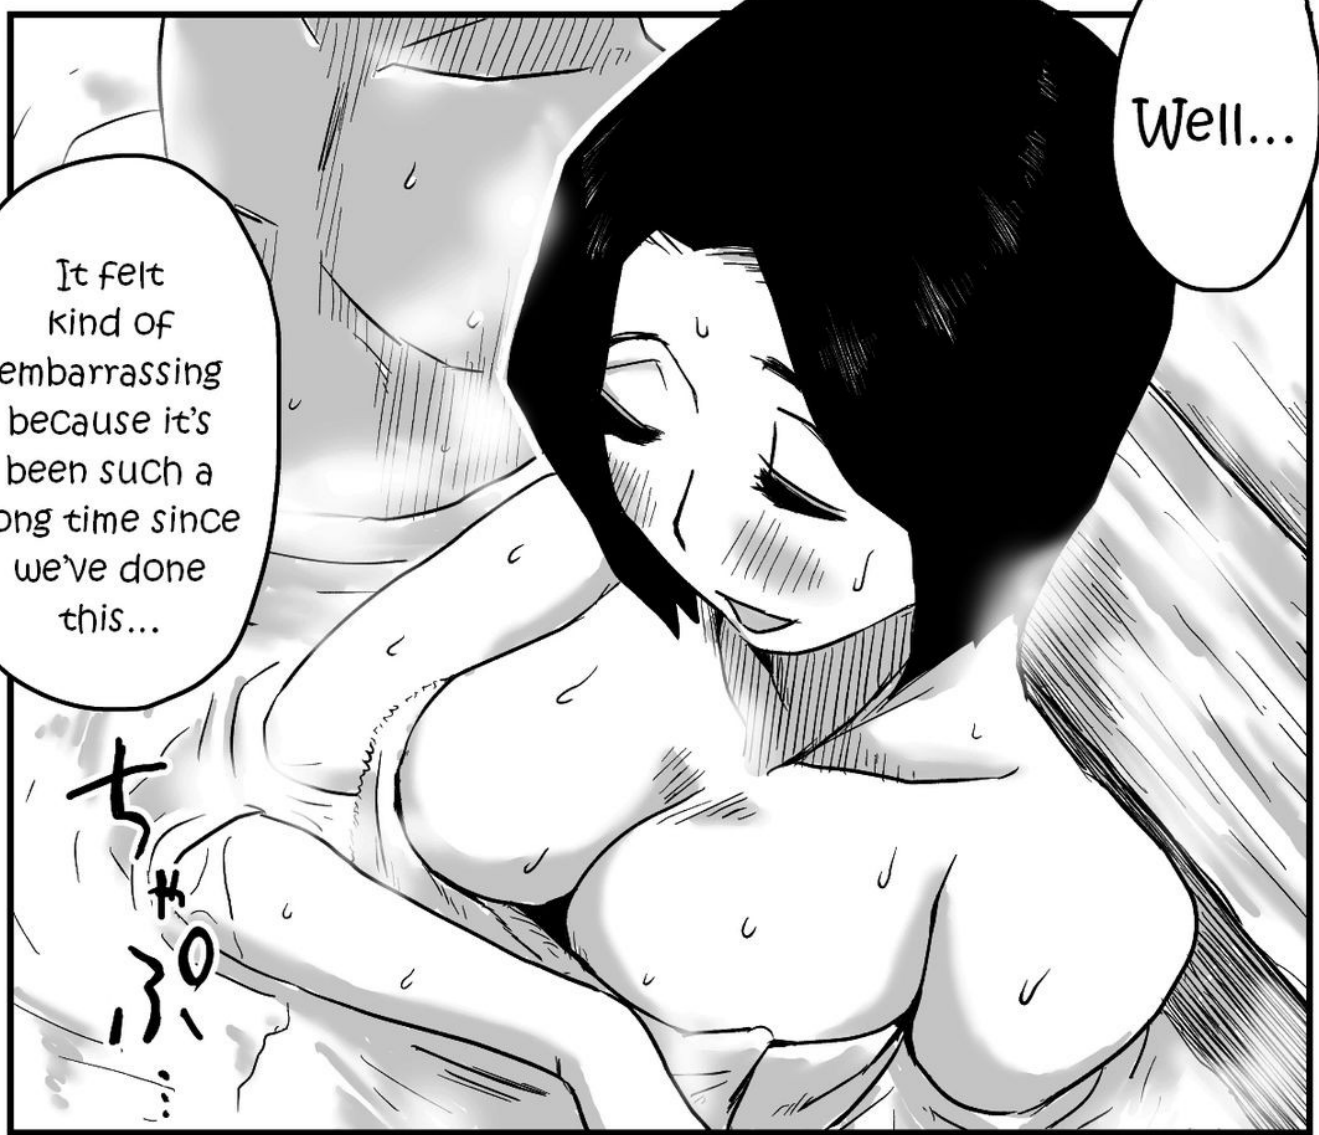

Right?

The thick water is making my skin all nice and smooth!

See? Taking a family bath was a good idea right, mom?

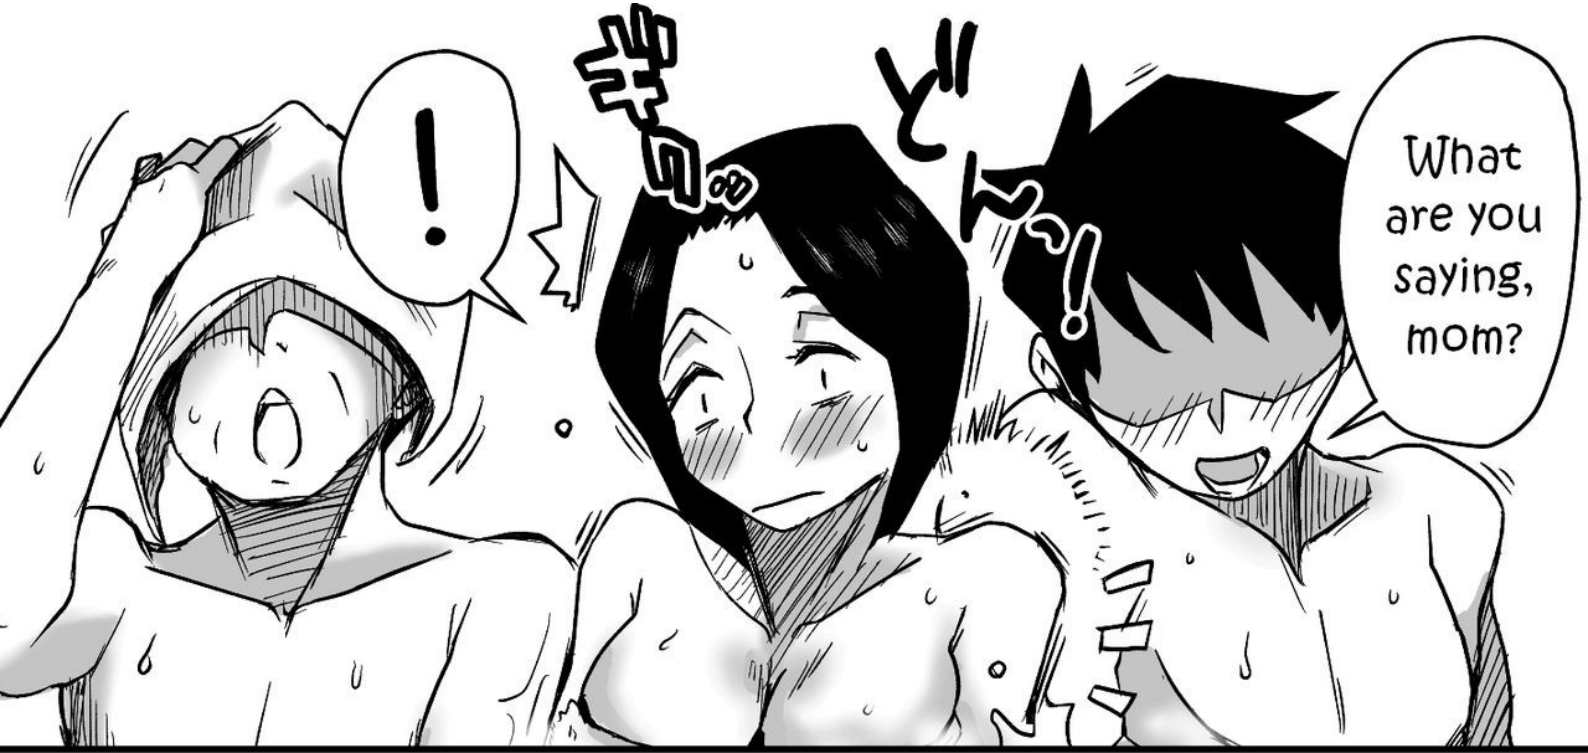

At first you didn't even want to~

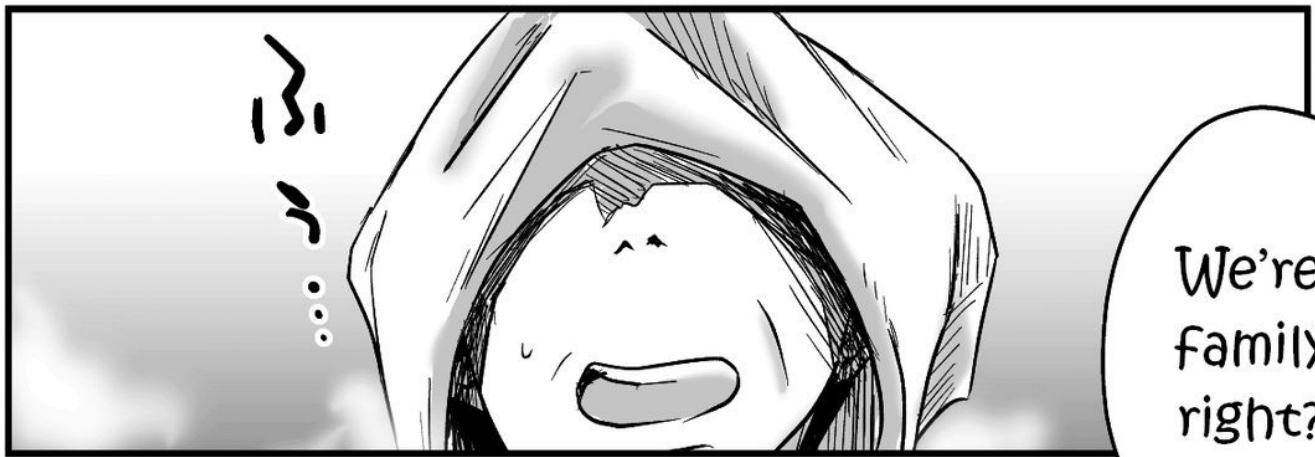

Well...

It felt kind of embarrassing because it's been such a long time since we've done this...

This... stupid son of mine!

That's true~

Ah

Huh?

After all, you have been so busy raising our son.

You've really been hanging in there...

Because of work I've been away from home a lot lately...

So today all I want is to take it easy here with you.

Hi there! Haitoku sensei here!

So I finally completed the latest "Oh! Mother's Particulars!". Well, how did you like it?

Unlike my usual stories this one was written in about 4 hours while I was taking a hot spring vacation. I had a lot of time writing the story and drawing the characters while relaxing.

I thought it'd be great if I was able to make the mom look really cute in this.

I'd like to try making one of these without any panels sometime. But that will be for another day.

Anyway, I hope to see you for my next work!

And thank you for buying this.
