Hello, Ohigetan here! Thanks a lot for buying this! (•∀•)
It sure has been hot lately! I've been turning on the AC and staying shut up inside. It made me get all sorts of work done and do a bunch of deep thinking. I'm entering my thirties, and finding it harder to keep concentrated. I felt pretty restless during 2016-17, so for a while I'd like to calm down and slowly focus on a work. From now on I'm thinking of only making doujinshi in the summer, and I think I'll use the time besides that to work on doujin games and business stuff. One time I missed the registration and had to skip it, but I've been going for about 10 years, so not going in winter of my own accord is a little sad. But even so, I want to take my time on some other work, so maybe a new way to work wouldn't be so bad? Is what I've been thinking. *I'll be doing my best going forward, so thank you for understanding. Let's get along next time as well! (*´p`)/
