D: I don't quite understand what you mean, Captain.
G: Men, women, aren't they all the same?
D: (Locked up the information) But according to what was said here, y subsequent actions were not "treat them as the same".
G: I am not tough enough to suppress such strong biological instincts, an I won't ask you to believe me, but if you had been there, you would have understood.
D: It seems you were in a situation where years and years of training were not enough to restrain yourself.
G: I'm just stating the facts, Doctor. (Laughing) And I am not on trial as a pervert.
D: Alright, Captain, I think we can get back to what we were talking about.
G: I'm relaxed just by talking to you. [REDACTED]
