First Half

■ For First Timers: ■

This is the first half of the third story in the Stone Age yuri "Earth Girls" series. There aren't any plot points carried over from previous stories, so it's fine to read this as a standalone work.

If you haven't read the previous two stories, you won't be familiar with the side characters or some details of the setting, but you'll still be able to enjoy the main plot.

■ The World of Earth Girls

Envisioning the world as it was 10,000 years ago.

• The Village on Smoke Mountain

Started by two travellers, Kidaha and Io. As followers on their various journeys steadily increased, they founded an all-women village.

They live an idyllic life while hunting, fishing, child-rearing, or clothesmaking. Altogether around 40 women reside here, from children to seniors.

■ The Main Characters of This Story

Katra

This story's protagonist.
An always-hungry airhead.

Kidaha

Village chief.
A shameless womanizer.

Mifuri

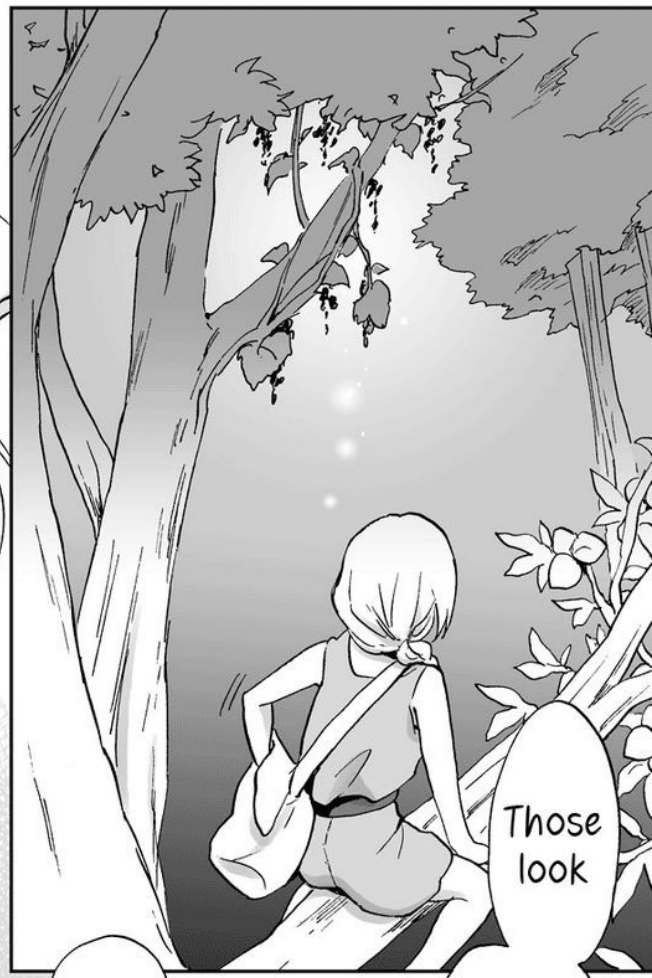

Katra's best friend.
Worried about growing up.

for my little brother and sister...

There's too many children to feed in our village.

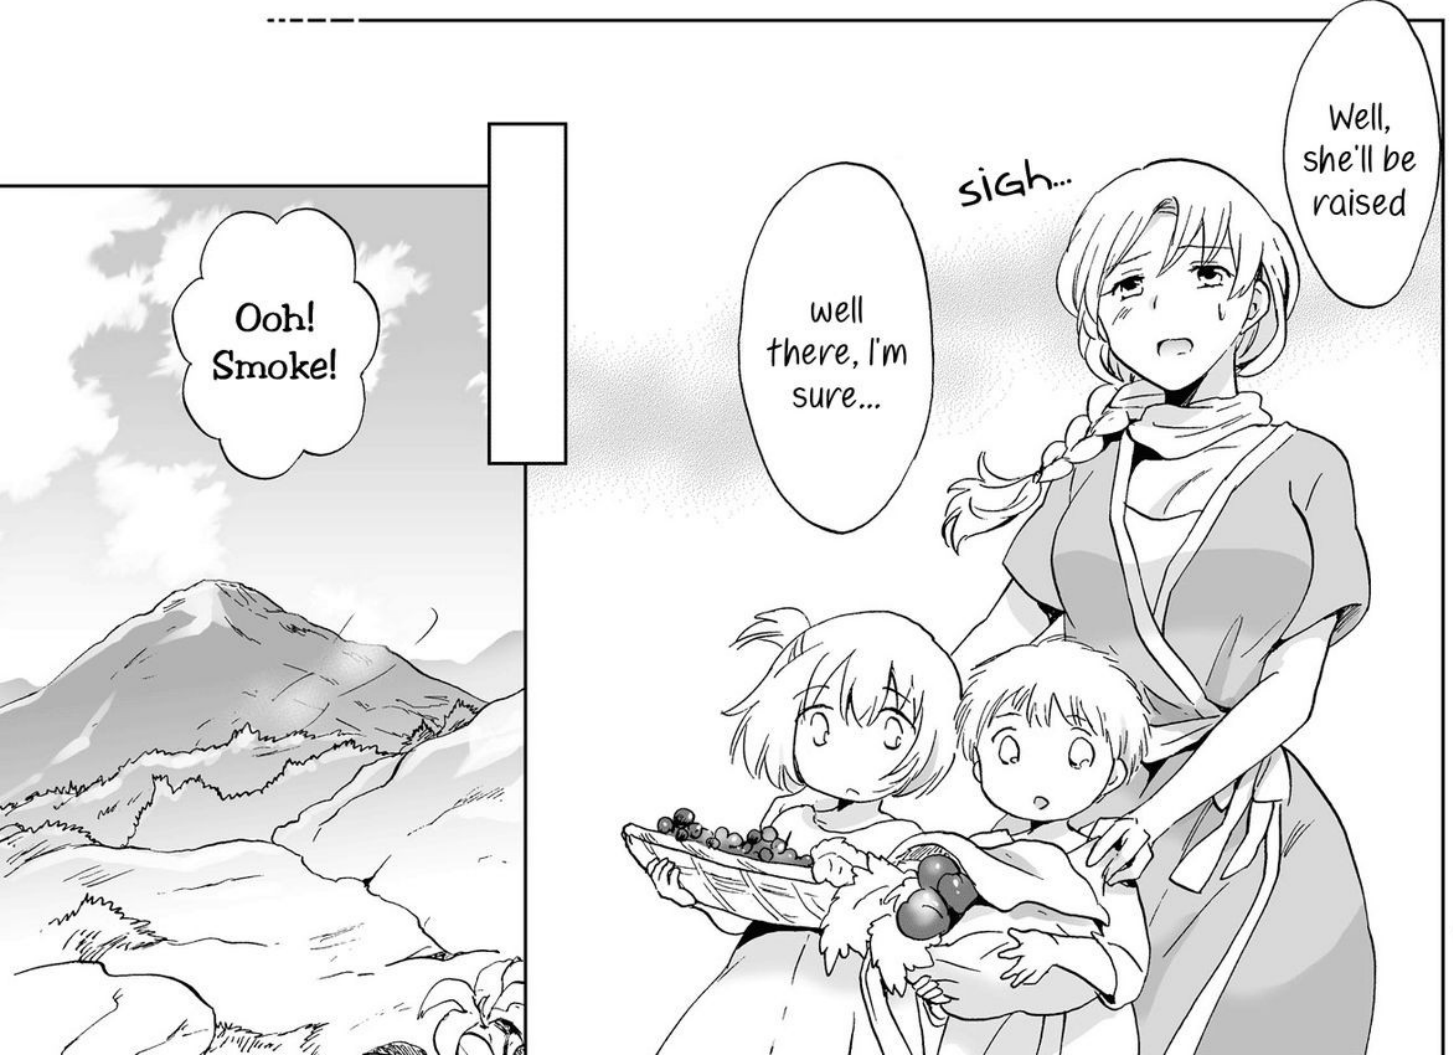

They won't grow like that.

I eat a lot, so I don't leave enough

My village is well supplied and we have great cooks, too.

But if you're scared, we can bathe together ♡

Kyah!

But if you get closer there are some hot places, so be careful.

There's no lava, just air. It's safe.

An eruption? Isn't that bad?

As village chief of Smoke Mountain, Kidaha kept frequent contact with neighboring villages.

Mainly for exchanging goods and information.

but sometimes she would bring back girls based on their circumstances.

This is not kidnapping.

But she's so cute!

Wait until she's more mature for that, you womanizer!

Sure.

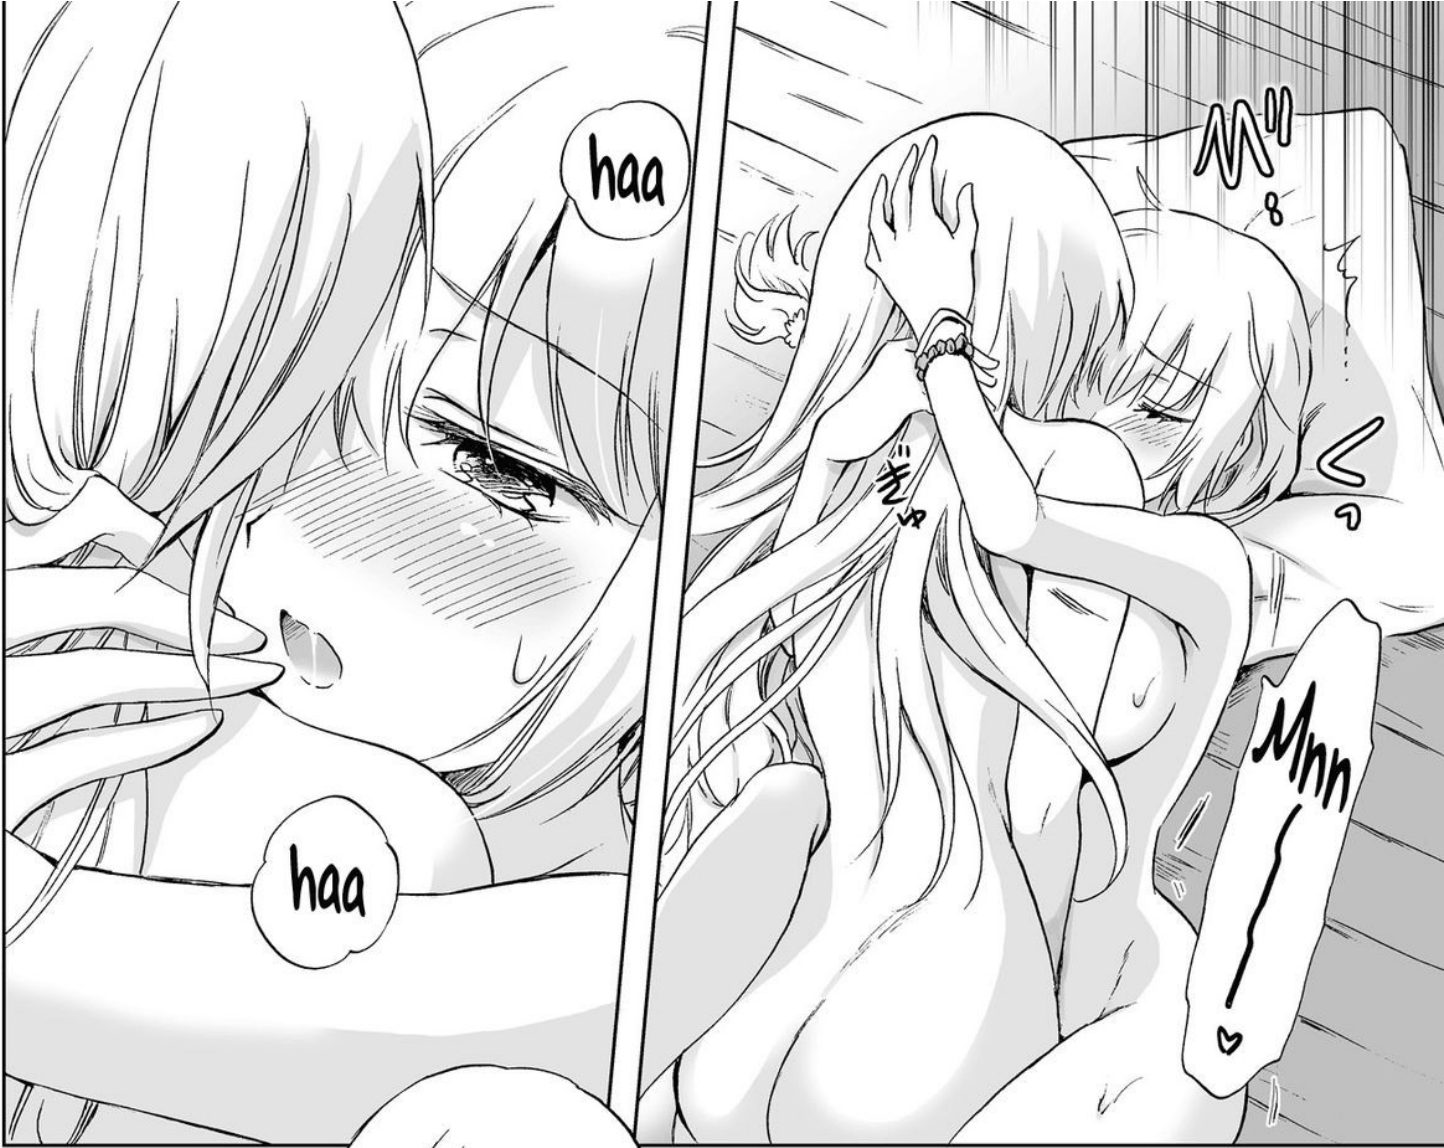

Hey, Kidaha, can you use your fingers?

Mh...

So soft and plump

fuah!

ah...

She's worried about something, so I want to listen to her.

Really? Should I come-

I want to talk with Mifuri today.

Why don't you just stay for the night?

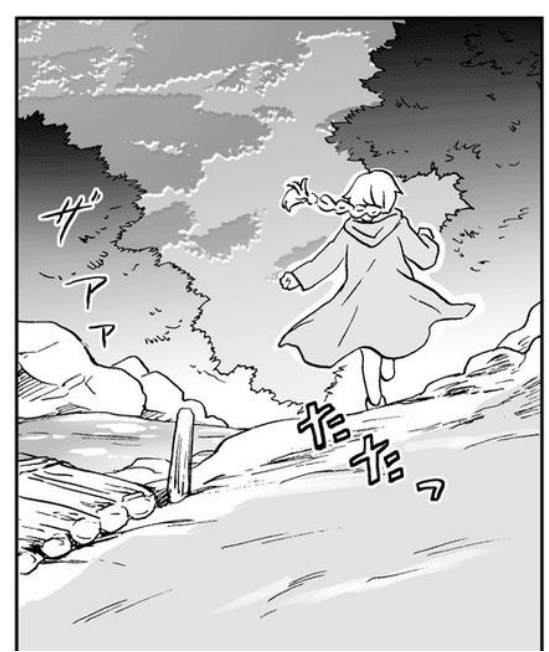

Because we're best friends!

I'll hear her out first.

I see.

ヒョウ...

All couples are of the same sex.

Smoke Mountain is an all-women village.

It's gotten colder.

We all think that way, so there's no fights.

But everyone's treated fairly, so I don't mind.

There's also women formerly married to Kidaha who go out with someone else now.

When it comes to Kidaha, she's so popular she has several wives.

And I love this village.

I love how kind Kidaha is.

I'm just happy to hear it.

I can't?

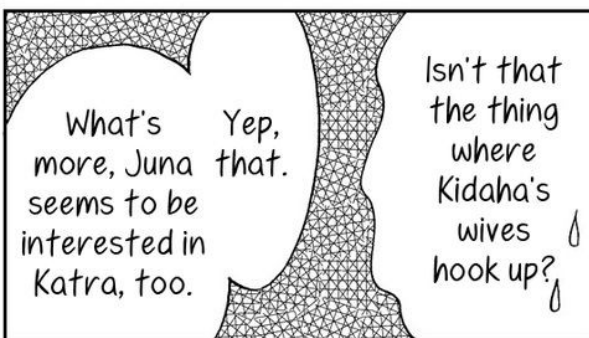

So you can say these kinds of things too.

I couldn't spend any time with you... It was lonely.

I was stuck taking care of that tomboy with Katra for so long.

I love being together with you too, Yume.

What's more, Juna seems to be interested in Katra, too.

Yep, that.

Isn't that the thing where Kidaha's wives hook up?

What !?

Mifuri loves Katra.

Even if she loves them all,

she'll eventually have to pick one of them.

She'll have to choose someone, in the end.

Ever since she stopped hunting with us, I haven't talked with her as much.

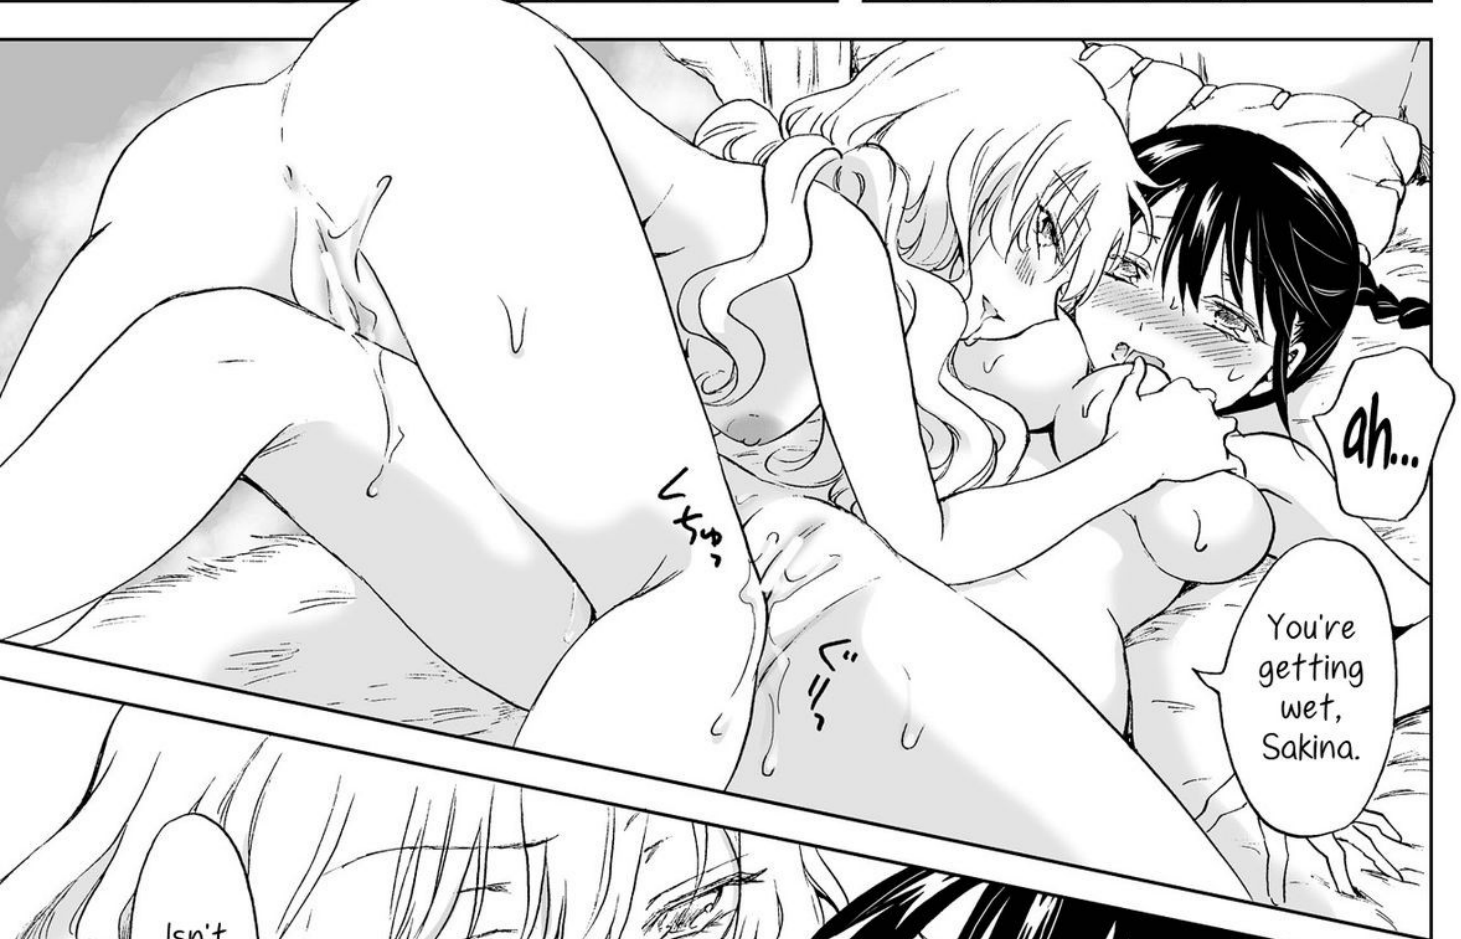

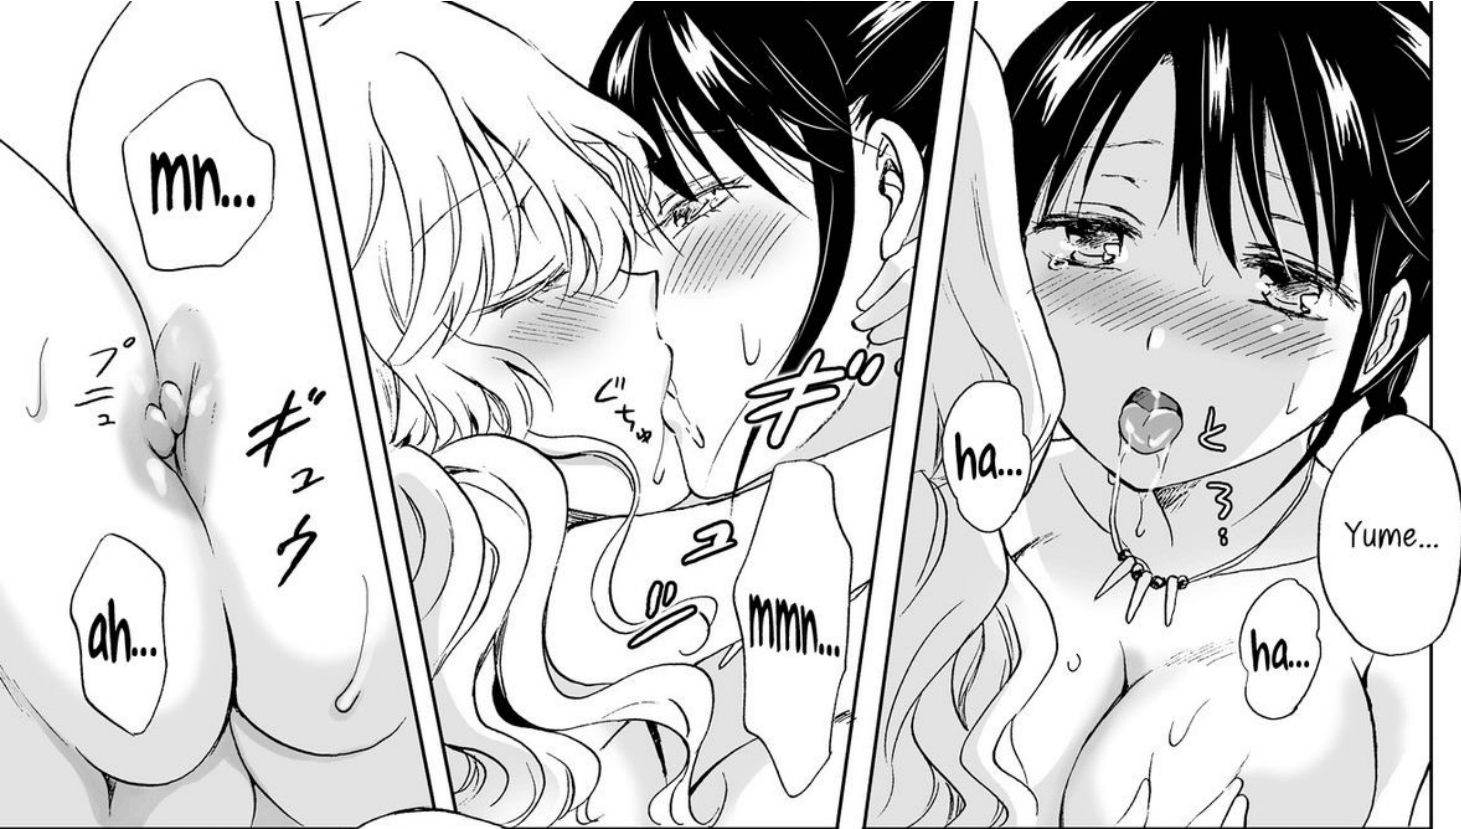

I wonder what Katra's thinking.

That just means her feelings aren't in line with her thoughts.

But didn't she say girls being with girls is weird?

Sure.

Let me do you too.

Let's do it together.

mn...

mn...

ah!

Don't be so loud, it's embarrassing!

I'll do the same...

fuah!

mh!

Sakina...

You guard both for me.

but not their hearts.

I can guard their bodies for them,

It would be nice if no one got hurt.

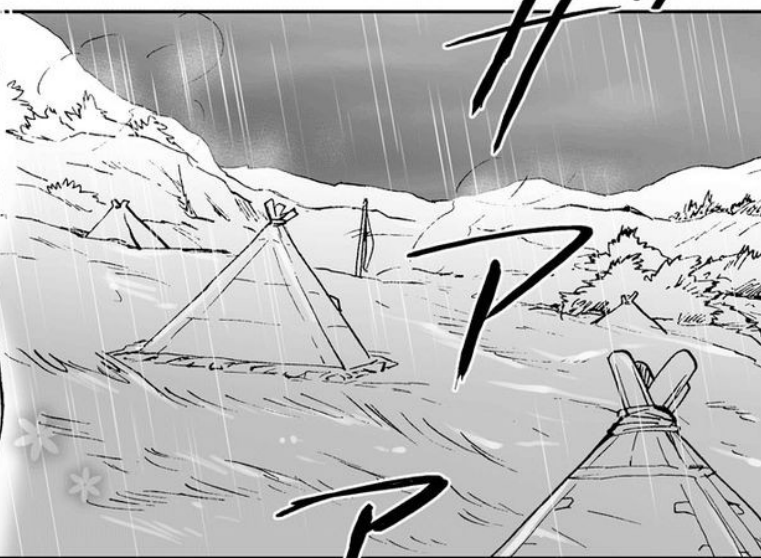

be they sweet or bitter, cannot be shared with others.

It'll be okay. Wounds of the heart,

Let us watch over them.

Hey, Kidaha.

Even watching over them might be too much to handle...

There it is!

There's something I have to say.

And Katra can't really do anything, so it's fine!

She's just head over heels for them!

That's not her fault, right? Kidaha just can't help being nice to girls!

Aren't you coddling Katra too much?

We get how you feel, but don't yell at her!

Should you really be laughing about this?

Don't butt in!

Ehehe, that's right!

and we don't see a problem with it.

It's always been this way for us,

I'm not so mature all the time...

I don't mind! I only did that once.

Please, stop butting in!

Aren't you making her depend on you?

She can be a mature adult! She took care of me all by herself while you were away!

because Kidaha's babying you all the time!

That's not true!

You just can't grow up

lo's here!

I understand what you mean, but this is their problem.

I thought you weren't going to involve yourself with us any more than necessary? ... This isn't your concern.

I won't wait!

I hate that!

Many problems solve themselves with time.

You think this problem will solve itself if you just wait?

Do your best.

Yume!
I can't do this! It's scary!
I can't watch over this!

Hag.

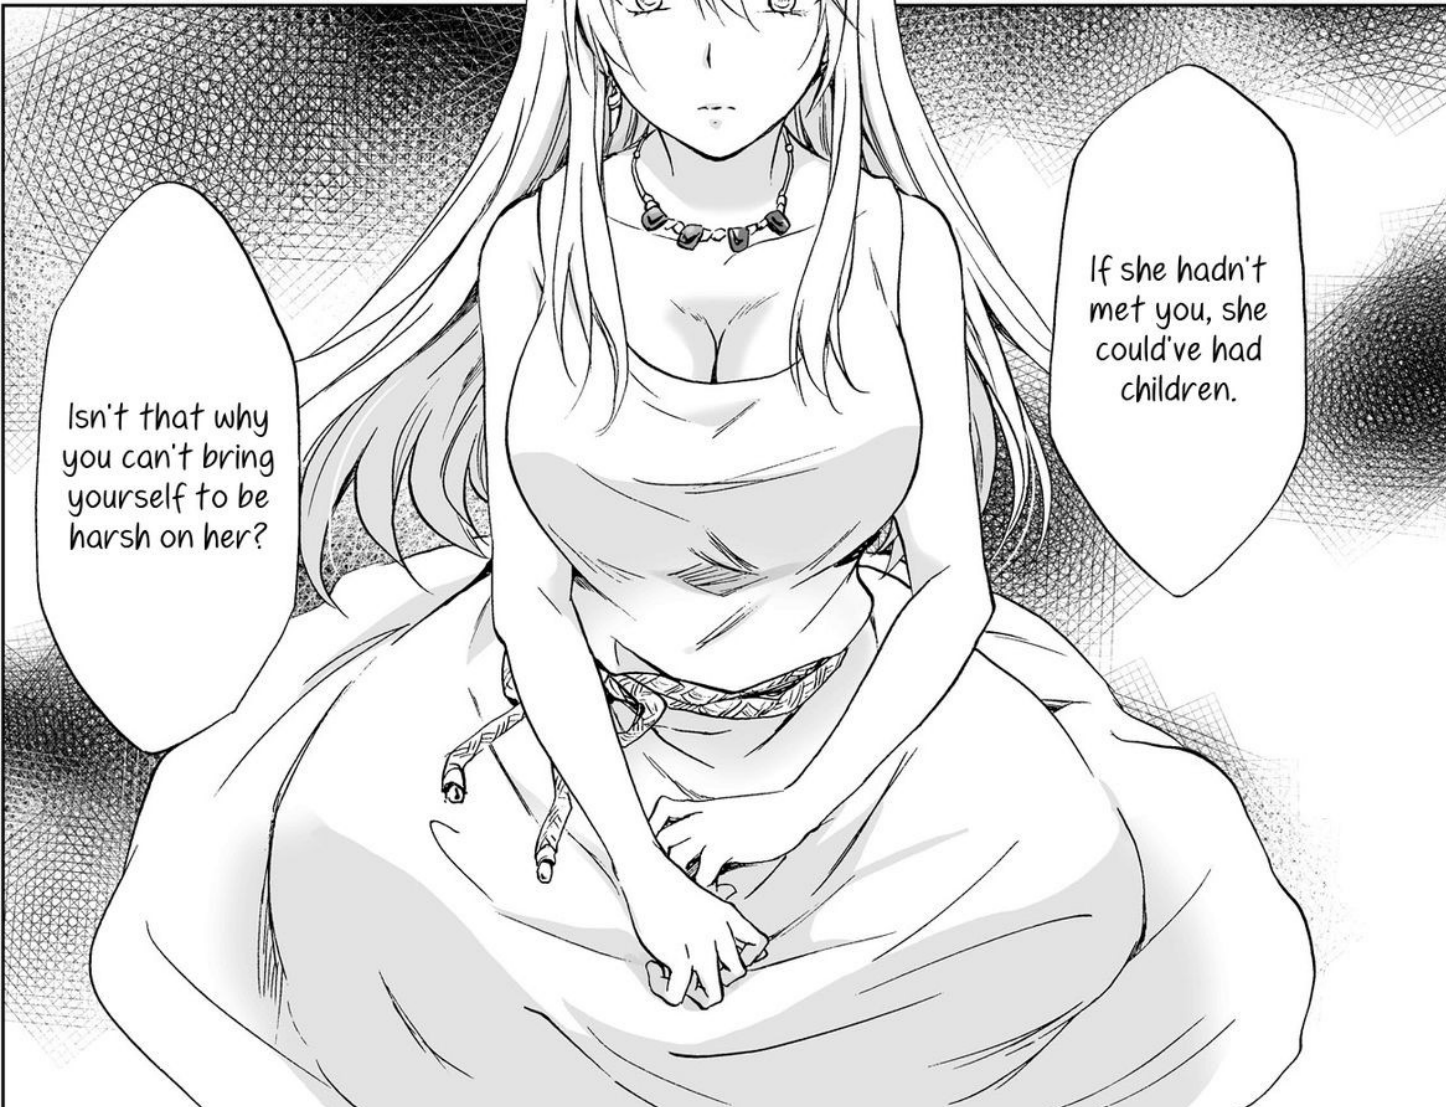

immature thought.

To measure all things by your own standards is the sign of

You feel guilty about Katra, don't you?

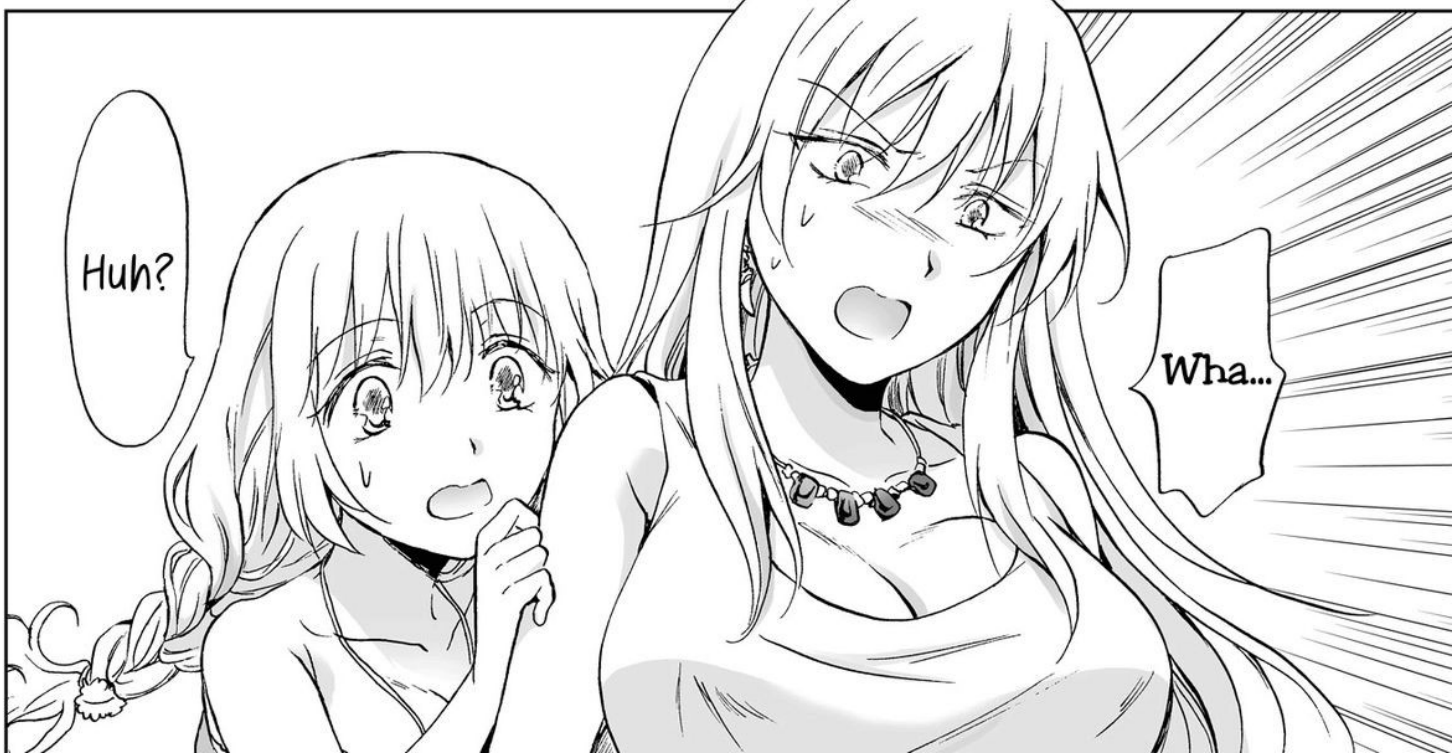

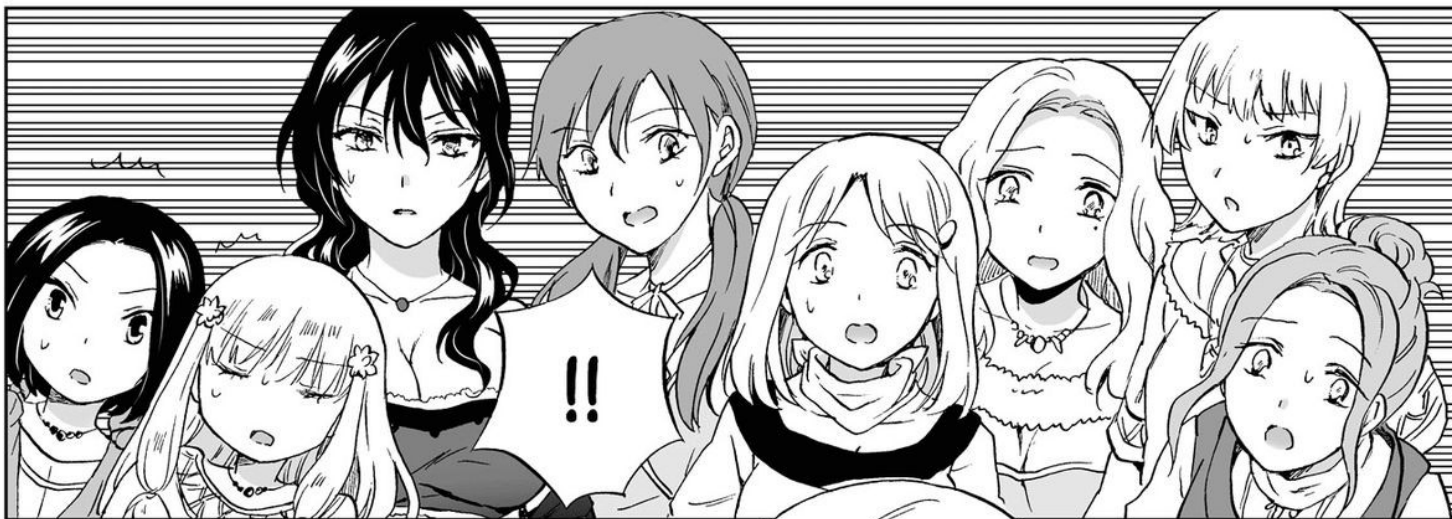

Kidaha.

Isn't that why you can't bring yourself to be harsh on her?

If she hadn't met you, she could've had children.

At least she'd grow more with me!

What? She can't have children with you either!

Ahhh! Don't fight! No violence!

There'll be all sorts of tasty food you've never eaten before!

I'll show you all sorts of things on our journey.

I love you, Katra!

Come spring, leave with me!

Don't get lured in by the food, Katra!

Tasty food!

I'll teach you everything!

I've stayed silent up until now...

You don't have to tie yourself to such a small village!

The world's a big place.

I really should've done this earlier...

But I'd regret it if I kept lying to myself.

M-Mifuri?

This isn't a game!

All of you keep blabbing on and on...

You're just taking advantage of the situation to get your own way!

And Juna!

Ugh...

Kida-ha!

That's low!

Wha-

You coward!

Whatever she said, all you needed to do was say, "I love her, so I'm not letting her go!" That would've settled it!

I'm not giving her to anyone!

I finally understand now!

The one who loves Katra most is me!

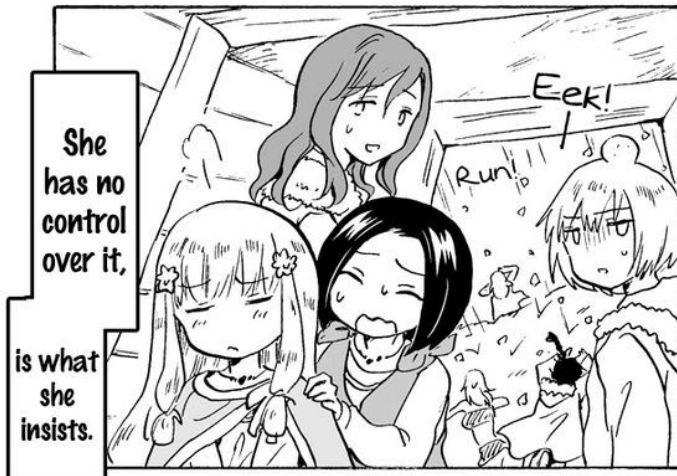

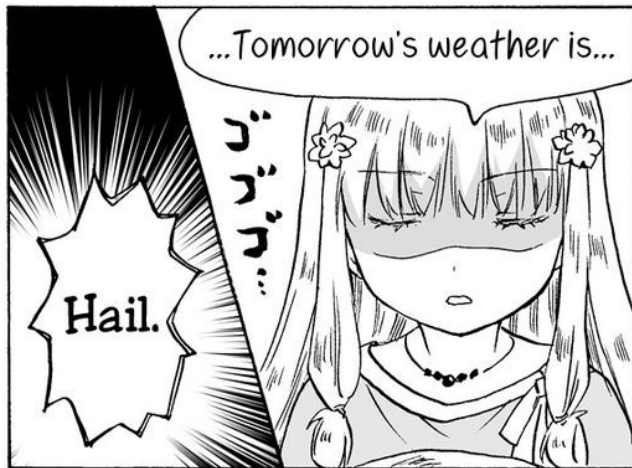

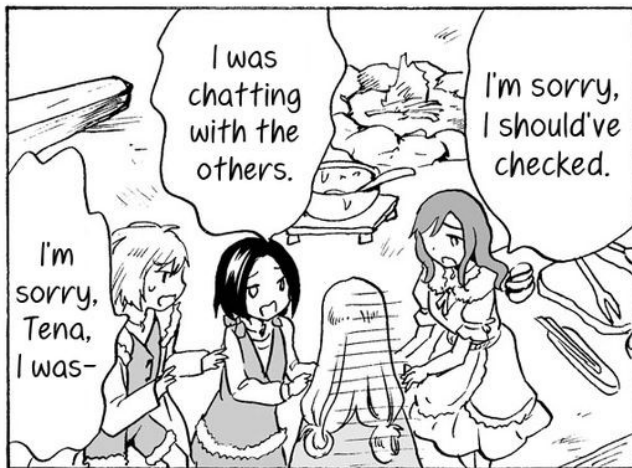

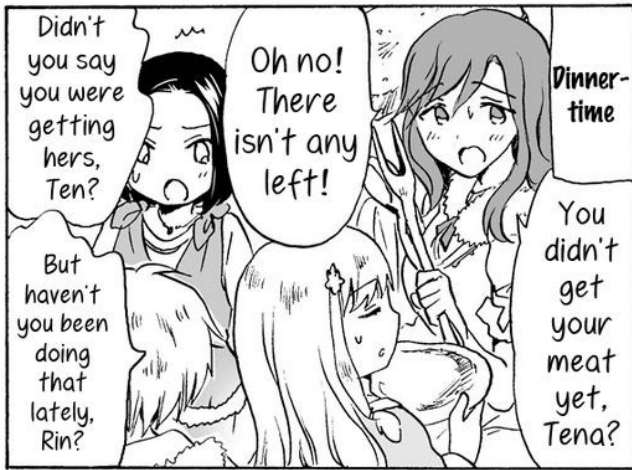

...Huh?

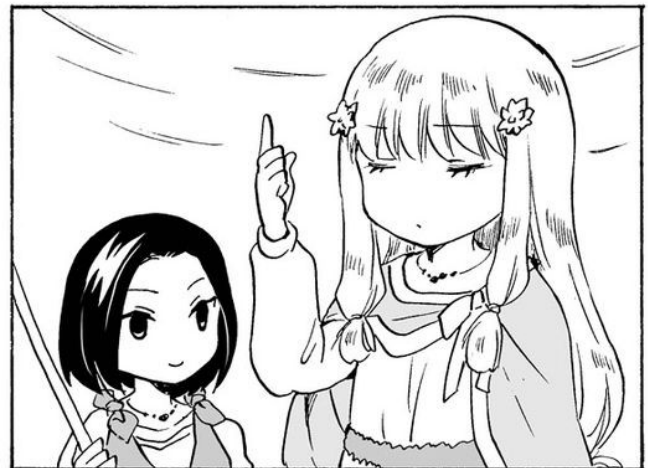

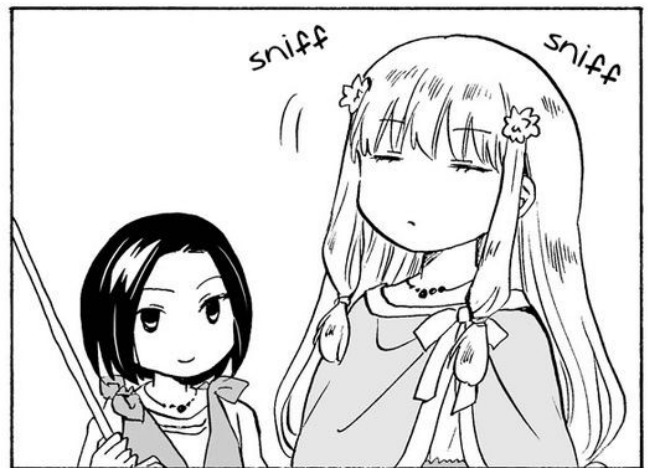

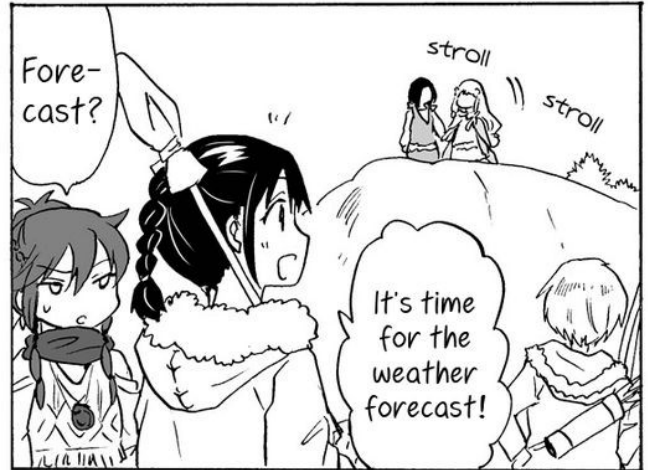

Huh?

Tena's Weather Forecast 1

What you would call a Sis-con
10,000 years in the future

Too soon!

However, you two are too young to be having an adult relationship!

I appreciate what you've done for my sister...

If either of us was a boy, I would understand you being worried about pregnancy, but that's got nothing to do with us.

And why is that?

Wha-

I didn't mean physically-

■ Afterword

Thank you so much for reading. This is the third stone age series, thanks to your support. This will be the last one.

The time line goes like this:
"EARTH GIRLS Tumugi",
2 years later, "EARTH GIRLS",
about one year later, "EARTH GIRLS Kajitsu".

In addition to Katra's 3-way relationship, for those of you who read my first series, I hope you enjoyed catching up with Sakina/Yume and the Ten/Tena sisters.

True to the subtitle "Kajitsu", many fruits like grapes and peaches make their appearance in this story. They haven't been selectively bred yet, so they're pretty small. Many of us expect wild fruit to be sour, but there were many delicious ones in the past, too. Descendants of those fruits today like the wild mikan let you taste the past. The nuts Katra was snacking on in chapter two are the kind you can eat without boiling, like walnuts or acorns.

About Juna's boat, or more specifically a dugout canoe: Can you really cross an ocean with that? So you would think, but they actually did make crossings in them. It's amazing. Solo trips like Juna's would be rare, though... Hopping from island to island, she found a route that wouldn't be too strenuous. For a girl like her who's confident in both her strength and skills, it wasn't a dangerous trip, but a thrilling journey.

See you in part two.

I think if we get closer to understanding each other, it'll help improve her life as well, and when I'm going out with a girl this cute, isn't it normal to feel this way?

And for someone who can't see, like Tena, physical contact is necessary for establishing trust and intimacy in our relationship. Age isn't a factor.

Um-

Like I was-

That is,

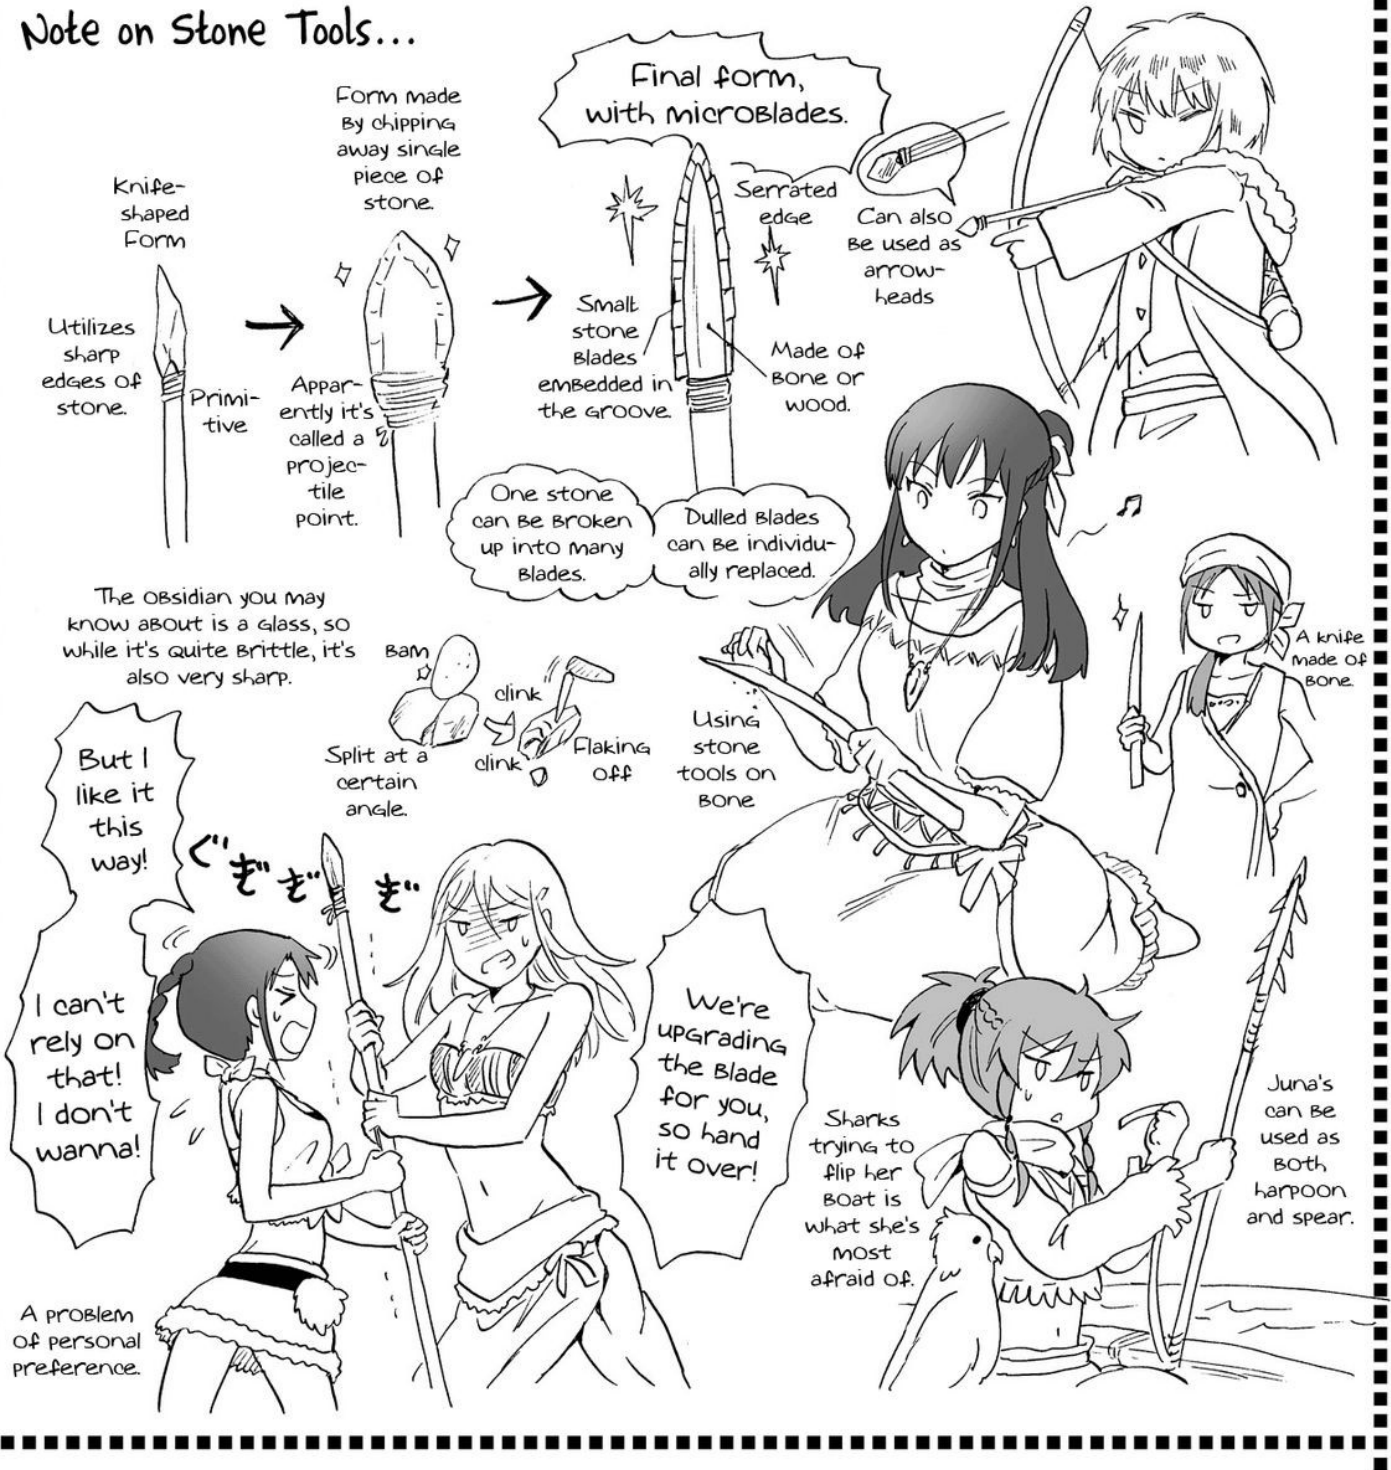

Just let your sister go already...

I love you
