Y-Yeah...

Hey!

Hurry up and get in,
Chloe!

Kya!

It's so cold!

As for why we're here.

Yep.

A world for just the two of us. ♡

We need to turn things back a week...

It's kind of embarrassing
when you say it like that...

Wow...

It's so pretty that I feel like we walked into another world...

Brrr!!

Yeah... I keep telling her to rest a little, but...

She's been going like that for 3 days already.

Yep, yep.

That Lillian is really going at it, huh?

Woo! Woo!

T-that's kind of embarrassing...

I-is that so...?

She said.
♥

"When I see Chloe from behind, researching with everything she has, I feel like I have to try harder too..."

Fufu. Lillian told me a while back.

She was always the one who'd take me somewhere...

... Come to think of it, in times like these...

Yes, that's right. A bit like that.

Like a launch party or something!

Good idea!

Huh?

Why don't you take her out somewhere after you finish this job?

Hey, Chloe.

For once, I should be the one who...

And it also has a private night pool like this in each room.

Amazing!

We can have all the fun we want!

This hotel has an open night pool on the roof.

You seemed like you wanted to come to one of these places, and you were working hard, so...

Well...

You'd always pick a museum or something. ♡

I never would've thought you'd bring me to a place like this, Chloe.

Euph

No.

Then there's one on the roof, so... If you like, we can go now and...

So I was thinking...

If you wanted a more lively place like the one Agatha and Yuzuki went to,

I like this just fine. ♥

Let's have all the fun
we want.

With just the two of
us. ♥

Lillian.

Her full name is Lillian Ljungstrom.
She specializes in darkness magic.

Whimsical, with a catlike personality. She's a genius-type who's good at anything she touches, but she refuses to look at anything that doesn't interest her. On top of that, she gets bored easily, making her a hard-to-please eccentric.

She seems charming on the surface, but most people, once they get to know her even a little, get turned away by her eccentricities.

She's been with Chloe since their previous school, and she enjoys being with her more than anything else.

The milk from her breasts is conjured up using magic. For the Magical Nipple Kiss series, it's one of the few actual "magical" parts.

Chloe

Her full name is Chloe Wichers.
She specializes in lightning magic.

To put it in a good light, she's proper and serious.
To put it in a bad one, she has a stubborn personality.

Out of the MagiNipple members, who're usually having nothing but sex, she's the most serious researcher.

She's the one person who understands Lillian's personality better than anyone else. With Chloe, who's hard-headed and has the patience of a saint, and Lillian, soft and without an ounce of patience, they support each other in their research team.

Her expressions are stiff, and she's always seen as having a sour face, which is one of her worries. But recently, she's started to show a gentle smile from time to time. Only in front of Lillian though.

◆Afterword

Newcomers and veterans, nice to meet you.
This is Homura Subaru.
Thank you for picking up this book.

This is the 6th installment of the Magical Nipple Kiss series.
(7 if you include B.) This time, I tried to go for a gentle, lovey-dovey feeling. How did you like it?

The setting for this installment is a private-room night pool, but you may start wondering "Why does a private room have a night pool??"

To tell the truth, an exhibitionist yuri sex story like last time's MagiNipple B is what night pool sex should look like (Putting aside for the moment whether or not you should really be having sex in a night pool), but I came to the conclusion that Lillian and Chloe would prefer being romantic with each other in private.

To bring to life a beautiful night pool backdrop for just the two of them, I thought that something like this would be nice, and created something convenient just for the story.

By the way, I have a lot more night pool story scenarios built up, but there's a bottleneck of it being hard to draw in any season other than summer... I've been thinking that there probably aren't many H-manga readers who care about seasonality, so readers might not mind if I just dive into night pool stories summer or winter... but I wonder how it is for real?

I still haven't drawn enough watery girls, so I'll leave it off for today.
Until next time~
