Afterword

A word from Aho Tera Soryo...

From now on my pen name is Aho Tera Soryo(Dumb Monk).

This work is the sequel of "Inshoe Jou", bringing the whole story to around 75 pages and an end to the story of the meeting between Kokonoe-chan and Takeda.

This story is about how Takeda got his ability of shrieking and the backstory behind it. I hope you liked it. The first volume was like a trial where I focused on the life inside Kokonoe-chan's shoe. The second was the end of it and was centered around the proof of loyalty towards Kokonoe-chan by getting stepped on multiple times. There was a lot more crushing scenes than usual so thinking about new ways was difficult but enjoyable. To make it more digest about each page has a different sock for Kokonoe-chan to crush with.

This work was about socks fetish so the design and size of each was especially important, the ones I like the best are high-knee socks. Only one is short because I don't really like this type. The check pattern I used for the cover is the one I like the most.

What type of socks would you like to get crushed by.

The cover this time had some influence from Japanese paintings I like, you can see it in the plain surface without shadows. I also like stamp-looking logo names.

With Kokonoe-chan writing a story about size fetish was quite easy. Since with magic everything goes..

Kokonoe-chan will of course come back, I also had ideas about boys from other classes being the main character and having size fetish stories with multiple girls. I also thought about new size fetish stories involving girls that already appeared

Thank you for reading.
