

A Choose Your Own Pee Adventure!

HANOMIDOU

Introduction

This work is a "choose your own adventure" type of book.

On each page, make your choice when prompted,
and jump to the designated page to continue the story.

Nice to meet you. I am Cleric-san,
a priestess and an adventurer.

This time,
I'm in the middle of an adventure...
And my story begins after, umm... after experiencing a certain physiological phenomenon.

(I'm worried...)

Depending on how you progress through the story

"desperation points"

may be acquired

Those influence event during the second half, so please keep track of your total points.
With that said...

Let's go on an adventure...

1

1

What should I do...

The town is still so far away...

In the middle of an adventure...
Cleric-san suddenly felt an urge to pee.
As she was walking through the main road,
she came to a split in the path.
It appears one of the paths goes through the forest, and the other through the mountain
Which path will you take?

Forest → 2 Mountain → 3

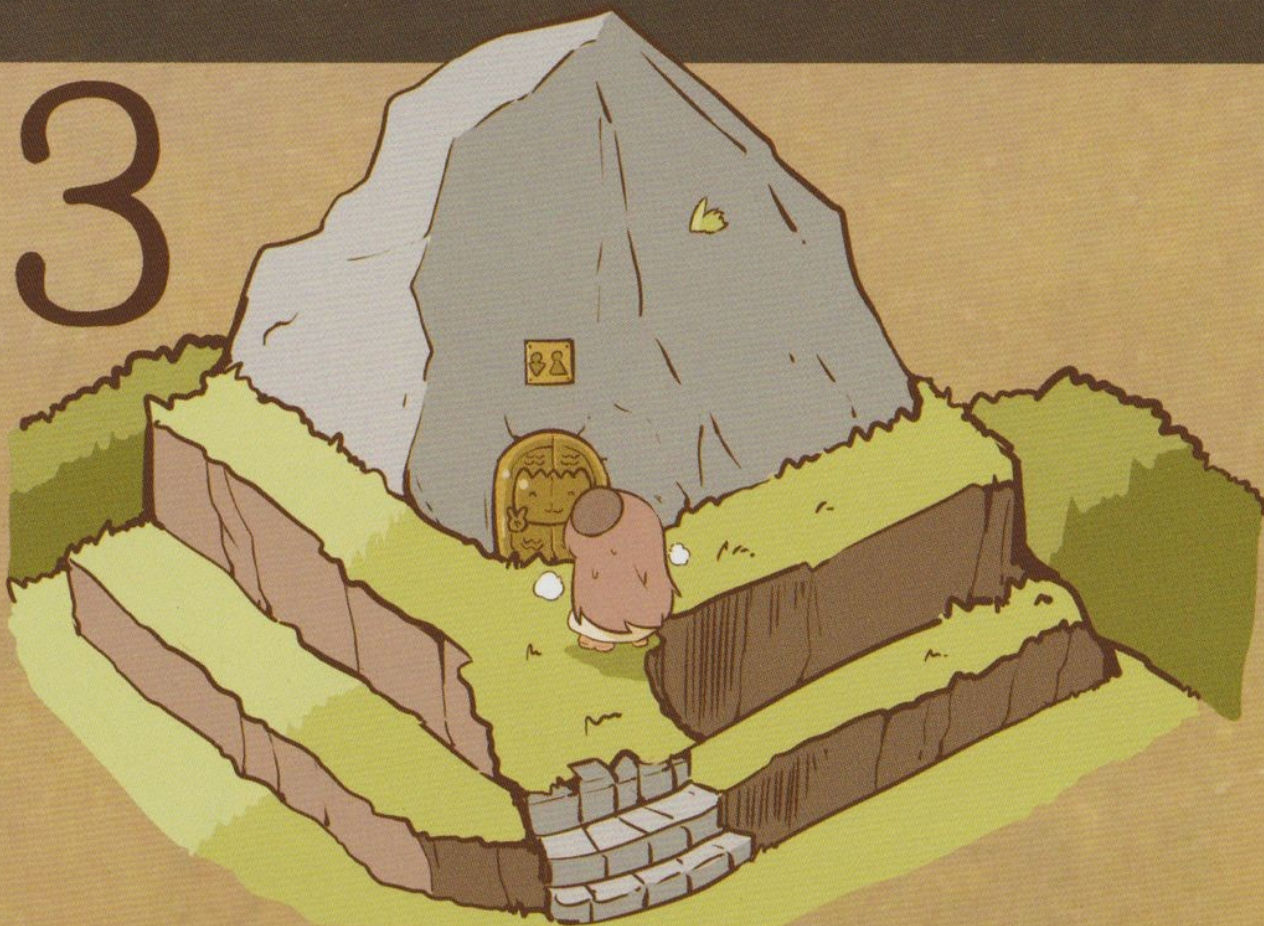

2

Advancing through the forest, she arrives at another branch in the path. To the left, the scenery is that of an unsafe-looking rocky path; To the right, a pleasant road extends ahead with an unobstructed view.

Cleric-san went through the route of the mountain.
 At the mountain's summit, there was a mysterious door that looked like it should lead to a bathroom, but the entrance was sealed.
 However, there's nothing to be sad about. In maybe 5 years, or 10 years...
 As long as she keeps adventuring, she's bound to be able to open that door one day.

That was completely fruitless.
 You get 1 desperation point.
 Go back the other way.

Encounter!! Adventurers in the middle of doing their business!

4

If only I was a boy too...

Kyaaa!
I'm sorry!!

She feels jealous of the physiology of a man's body.
+1 desperation point.

5

In the middle of the forest, there's a girl lying on the ground. It looks like she is injured.

Cleric-san could help the girl with healing magic, or hope that the girl didn't notice her and keep going.

Help the girl → 6

Keep going... → 7

She healed the injured girl, and...

The girl, who was now feeling better, seemed to be a little peculiar!

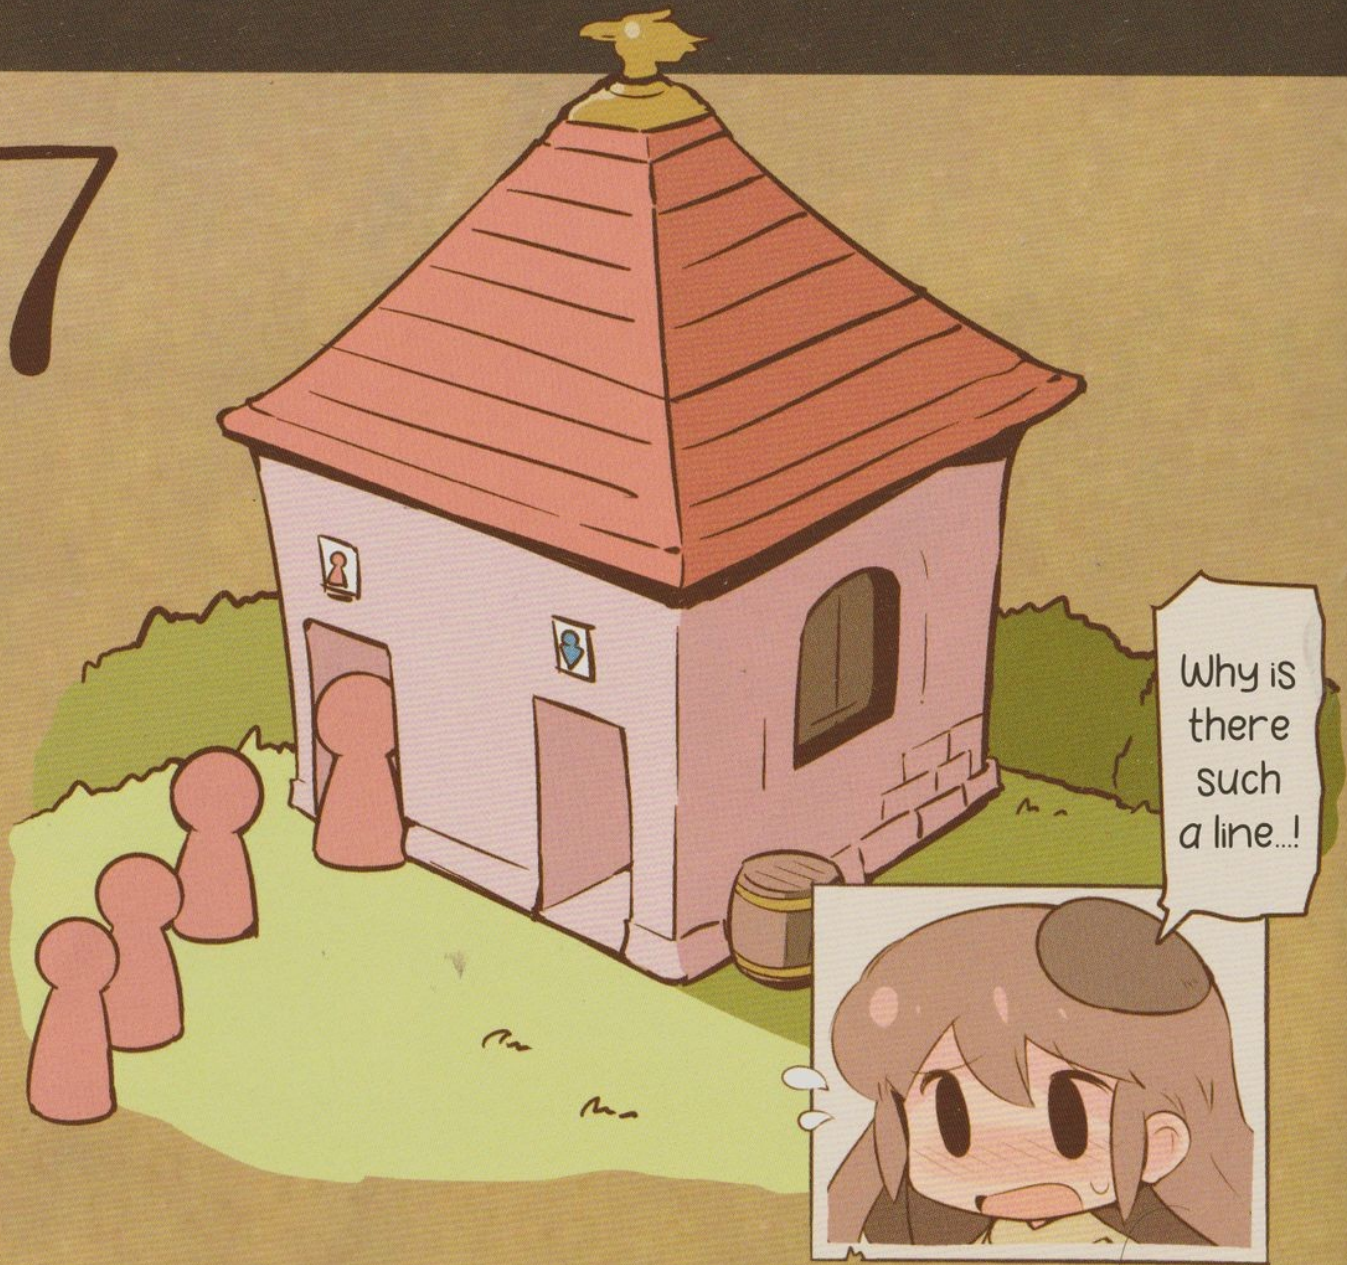

Although she breathed down on Cleric-san's neck, she eventually let her savior be alone...

With her body jostled by the girl, Cleric-san's need to pee increased. Please add 1 desperation point to your total.

Cleric-san finally made it through the forest.
In that moment, an unmistakable public bathroom came into view.
As she is also steadily approaching her limit, it seems she has no choice but to hurry towards one of the entrances.

Brave the line to the women's bathroom → 9

Brave the shame of going into the men's bathroom → 8

Cleric-san braved her shame and rushed into the men's bathroom. There, she was met face to face with an enormous dragon! Cleric-san was not prepared for this battle, and, on top of that, she was getting close to her limit.

If your accumulated desperation points are 2 or less, you may flee to the outside.

→ 15

You have no more than 2 desperation points. Have you helped another person on the way here?

→ 10

This is bad, you made it here with 3 desperation points!

→ 16

As people rush into the women's bathroom, the inside becomes crowded with a huge line.

They wait and wait for their turns, but it doesn't look like the line is advancing.

Cleric-san is also desperately trying to hold on, but...

Your accumulated desperation points are 2 or less.
Will she make it in time...?

→ 12

Your accumulated desperation points are 2 or less.
Do you remember helping another person?

→ 11

This is bad, you made it here with 3 desperation points!

→ 14

Onee-samaaa!!

10

The girl Cleric-san rescued a while ago came to take part in the battle!

Thanks to the girl's earnest efforts, it seems Cleric-san was able to go into a stall!

11

Oh, it's you!

For some reason, the girl Cleric-san rescued earlier was standing in line in front of her!

The girl let Cleric-san go first! → 13

She fell over.

Finally, Cleric-san ran into the private room for which she so longingly desired. However, in her hurry, she lost her footing and fell hard on her butt. Don't panic, Cleric-san, you've got this. Just compose yourself, and stand up ag-... eh? Cleric-san?

She wet herself... → 18

What a relief...

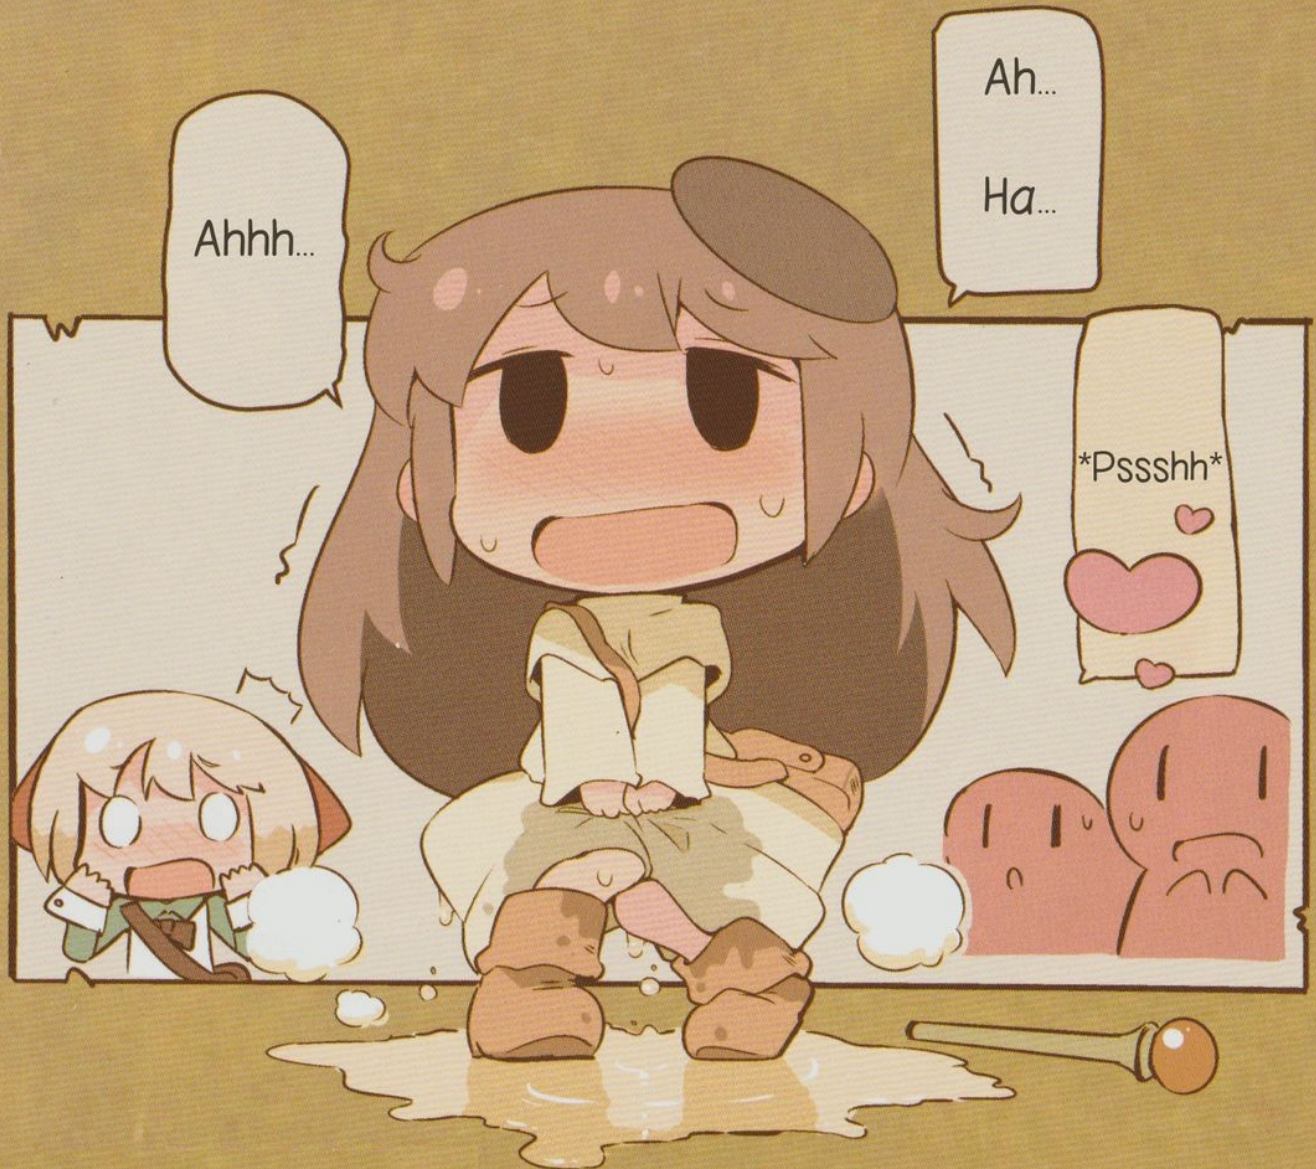

Cleric-san finally reached the toilet thanks to the rescued girl. It feels good to finally be relieved from holding so much, doesn't it?

She's finally made it to a toilet.

→ 17

She didn't make it...

14

Despite her best efforts to keep holding on and wait for her turn, it ultimately became too much for her bladder, and Cleric-san ended up peeing herself.. It was such an overwhelming feeling of relief and pleasure, that it made Cleric-san feel strange, kind of naughty... It developed into an odd habit of holding to her limits intentionally...

She wet herself...

In the middle of the bushes...

Cleric-san escaped from the dragon-inhabited bathroom. She rushed towards the bushes, as she was about to reach her limit. Although she somehow avoided wetting herself, she couldn't stop worrying that someone might be watching her.

END

DRAGON BUSTER!!!

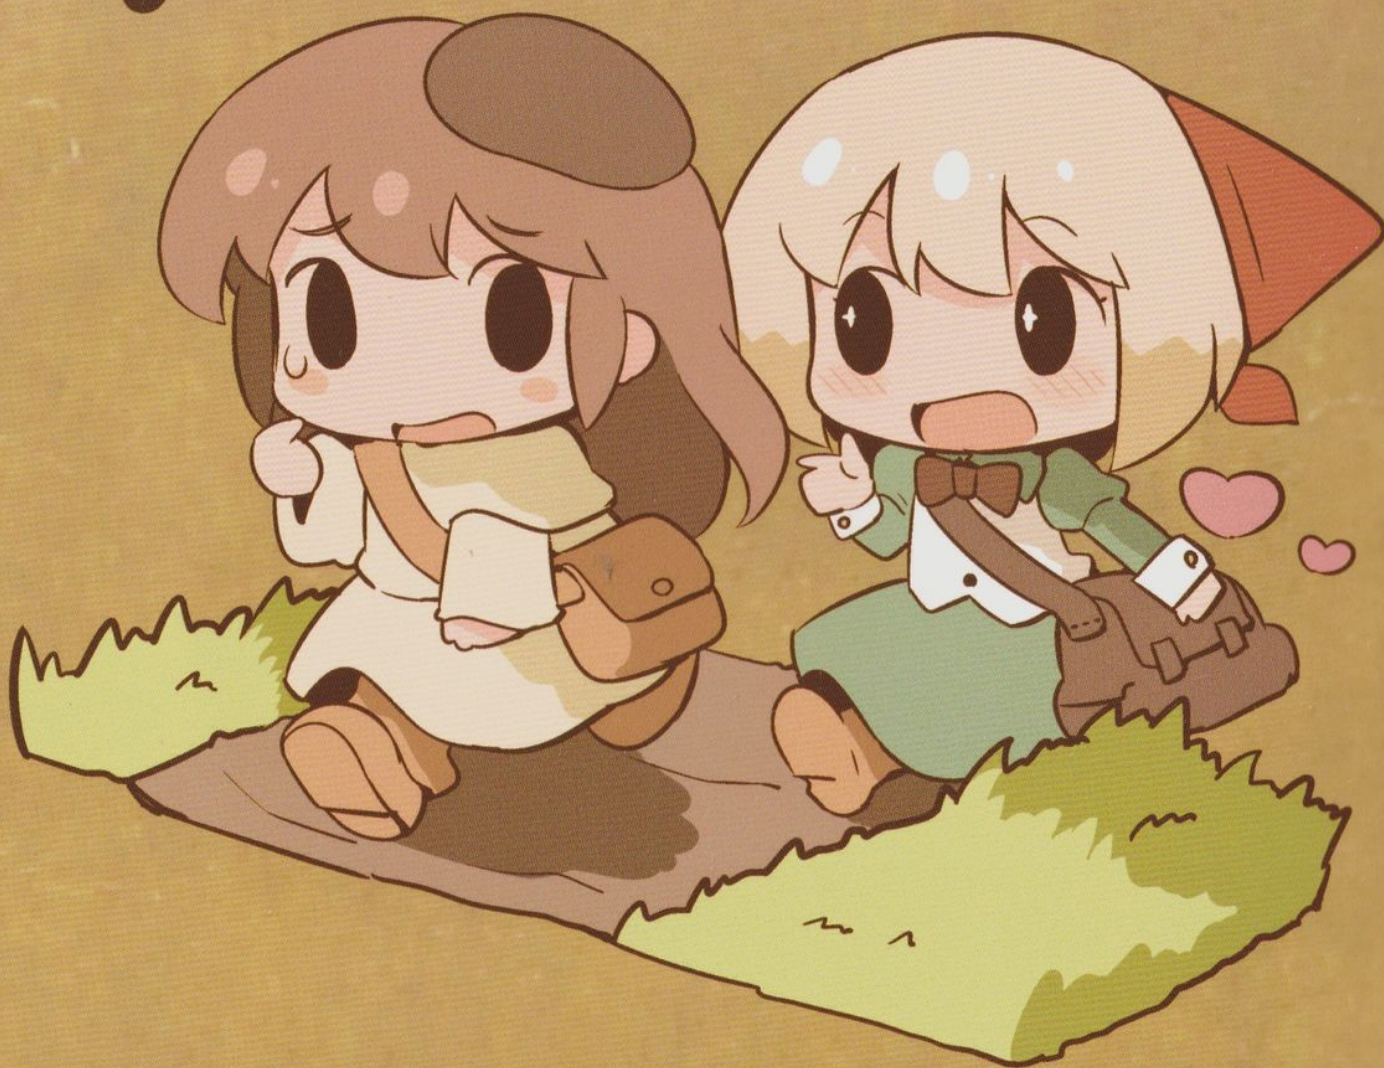

Cleric-san did not feel scared of the dragon she was facing; she wanted to use the toilet more than anything. She managed to channel some crazy strength, and pummelled the living daylights out of the dragon. In doing so, it seems she went beyond what her body could take...

She wet herself...

Case closed...?

Cleric-san managed to use the toilet without further incident. In addition, it looks like she has a new adventuring companion! It's that peculiar girl, but at least she doesn't seem to be a bad girl, so... it should be alright?

Let's use the restroom ahead of time so we don't need it in the middle of an adventure.
