Hana Takane Character Setting.

- Finds it hard to refuse when asked for something. (Type who's friends with everybody.)
- Up till now she'd get confessed to, go out once, then break up soon after. (As refusing is no good.)
- Single parent at home. (Only her mother.)
- Has 2 little brothers. (The Onee-chan attribute.)
- Likes gals or rather, specifically, the gal style of fashion. (Her style switch starting high school.)

Afterword

Hello, Cle Masahiro here.

This time I made a manga with a fantasy of a gentle high school gal getting with an otaku.

There is a saying, "Summer is the tan gal, winter is the white gal." This book expressed the color tones of Japan's four seasons. (Subtly.)

At the time of making this book, I did some investigating on various gal cultures. I also managed to avoid fapping to the gals, but yeah...

Gals really are something special aren't they.

I mean, I love the loose socks part of the culture.

I want all high school girls to wear them.

I really like the silhouette it forms.

And with that, kind regards for the next year,
Cle Masahiro.

The mobile game is based on Identity V, if for some reason you wanted to check it out. It's similar to a mobile Dead by Daylight. Also, the gal has a very cultured choice of authors she wants to read...

This thigh squish is fucking amazing. Wish more authors hailed from the church of Thighdeology for their panel angles.
