

My childhood dream was to be a national swimmer
I wanted to stand at the top of a podium with a gold neck around my neck

But the walls of reality were brutal
I was forced to accept reality

But I have never regretted swimming

The reason is...

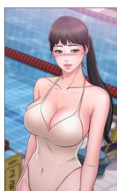

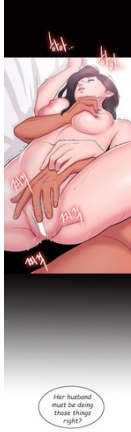

In the past and even now, most of the customers who come to swimming centers are women

In the past, it was older women. Now, it's mostly younger women

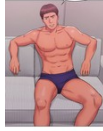

Do you know anything about that woman who was with him?

No.

Don't lie, I know you well.

There's a man going to swimming with her, normal woman.

Just make sure you're not wrong.

Do you know with who she always comes here?

I have one of them before.

Oh, that's just a coincidence.

It's strange when this woman here.

It's strange with all of them on the beach.

They usually have to be a normal woman.

They usually come here to meet him.

Look over there.

That woman is the same woman.

Don't they look like they're here to meet him?

Why would they meet him for a reason to do that?

Probably aren't here for a reason to meet him.

Do you pay them back, or should you pay them back?

Trying to see if you're right.

Then let's go up there.

Ah!

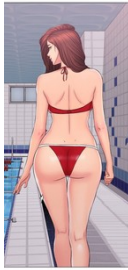

What a situation.

How did she even know about this? And why is she here?

Your form is great in some ways.

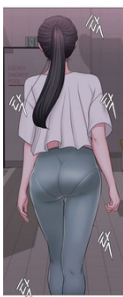

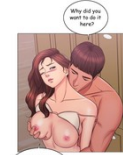

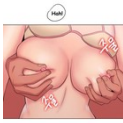

Your form is great in some ways.

I'll take a look at your form later.

Heh

Why did you want to do it here?

I'm bored of the place

What if we get caught?

That's what makes it exciting

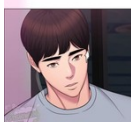

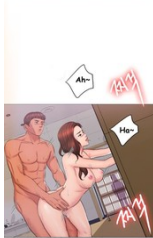

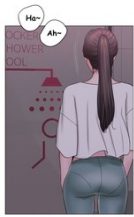

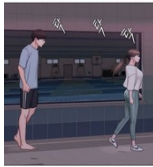

And so what if they see us? They won't see anything and just be polite people

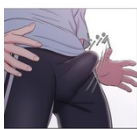

I'm having trouble with girls

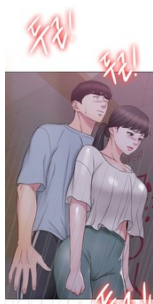

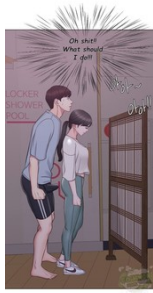

We can make it spicy

What? Are I not good enough?

Of course you are
